 The Oxford Handbook of Mary Chris Maunder,2019-08-07 The Oxford Handbook of Mary offers an interdisciplinary guide to Marian Studies including chapters on textual literary and media analysis theology Church history art history studies on devotion in a variety of forms cultural history folk tradition gender analysis apparitions and apocalypticism Featuring contributions from a distinguished group of international scholars the Handbook looks at both Eastern and Western perspectives and attempts to correct imbalance in previous books on Mary towards the West The volume also considers Mary in Islam and pilgrimages shared by Christian Muslim and Jewish adherents While Mary can be a source of theological disagreement this authoritative collection shows Mary s rich potential for inter faith and inter denominational dialogue and shared experience It covers a diverse number of topics that show how Mary and Mariology are articulated within ecclesiastical contexts but also on their margins in popular devotion Newly commissioned essays describe some of the central ideas of Christian Marian thought while also challenging popularly held notions This invaluable reference for students and scholars illustrates the current state of play in Marian Studies as it is done across the world

Handbook of Religious Culture in Nineteenth-Century Europe Anthony Steinhoff, Jeffrey Zalar, 2024-12-30 This handbook offers a guide to research on religious culture during Europe's long nineteenth century 1800-1914 Grounded in the latest theoretical approaches and in line with trends that have produced a religious turn in the study of modern Europe the volume assesses the state of the field while making provocative recommendations for its enlargement Unique and ambitious in its thematic breadth it addresses the histories of all five of Europe's main religious traditions Eastern Orthodox Christianity Judaism Islam Protestantism and Roman Catholicism and brings these histories into comparative analysis This analysis extends to a wide range of subjects from popular belief and practice education and modern knowledge formation and the arts to the intersections between religion and urbanization civil society and politics and missions and imperialism It also evaluates recent developments in work on religion vis vis both gender and nationalism while calling attention to newer research that proposes secularism as a form of belief in its own right Presenting the scholarship of eighteen leaders in their respective fields the volume explains why religion as a topic of research has moved from the periphery to the center of modern European historiography
