

Troubled Star

By CAROLINE W. BROWN

The first indication of the trouble came in the form of a letter from the publisher, Mr. Brown, who had been told by the editor that the book was not to be published. The letter was dated the 15th of the month, and the book was to have been published on the 1st of the next month. The publisher was very sorry that the book could not be published, but he was sure that the book was still a very good one, and he was sure that the book would be published in the future.
