A healing cowboy, his maid, and the forbidden relationship that begins when they get snowed in together. Sterling Maughan, once a renowned snowboarder, is in self-imposed exile at his family cabin after a tragic accident stole his career. Lost and without purpose, solitude is his only companion until an unexpected visitor disrupts his isolation. Norah Watson, not just a housekeeper but a counselor at Silver Creek, an equine rehabilitation center for troubled teens, has been using Sterling's cabin as a retreat for her girls. She sees the deep despair that Sterling is trying to hide and, despite her own burdens caring for her mentally ill mother and three half brothers, she can't help but reach out. When Sterling learns about a job opening at Silver Creek, he turns to Norah for help. As he learns to work with horses and help the boys at the center, he also begins to heal himself. The more time they spend together, the more Norah fears revealing her own troubled past, her modest home, and her challenging family. Yet Sterling finds himself drawn to everything about Norah. As his body mends, so does his faith. But can Norah trust Sterling enough to let him into her life and give their unexpected and forbidden love a chance? Isaacson artfully combines disparate threads in her contemporary Western Christian romance in her Three Rivers Ranch series.
