Slow Motion Changing Masculinities Changing Men:

Slow Motion Lynne Segal,1994 Slow Motion L. Segal,2007 Slow Motion tackles the prevailing feminist pessimism about men and male power Challenging the notion of masculinity as a monolithic entity Lynne Segal points out the contradictory and competing nature of its different forms The Politics of Manhood Michael Kimmel,2009 A much needed often startling debate on the personal and political dimensions of masculinity Straight Sex Lynne

Segal,1994-01-01 An unflinching examination of feminist thinking on sexuality over the past twenty five years and an exploration of sex in our culture tackles major questions head on and considers whether women must choose between sexuality and selfhood UP Men's Bodies Judith Still,2019-08-07 No detailed description available for Men s Bodies

Engaging East Timorese Men in the Process of Establishing Gender Equality Melanie Lotfali,2013-09-18 ABSTRACT The equality of women and men is a prerequisite for peace Social development interventions over recent decades have sought to achieve equality primarily by educating and liberating women from the shackles of customs and paradigms that serve to maintain gender inequality It is increasingly recognized that due attention must be given to men s essential role in the process to men s education and liberation In East Timor the latter process has begun albeit on a small scale This study looks at ways to further advance this process Three and a half years in East Timor provided the opportunity to engage in applied research using the methodology of ethnography I gathered data using three main techniques semi structured interviews with more gender equitable men and with women and men occupied with the engagement of East Timorese men in gender equality observation and direct participation within a wide range of settings from informal encounters on local beaches to high level meetings with the president and government ministers and analysis of pertinent primary and secondary documents I identified that a number of interventions are being applied to the issue of engaging East Timorese men in gender equality including use of workshops and trainings the performing arts campaigns and the mass media role modeling and the techniques of popular education with varying levels of success I found that the Association of Men Against Violence and its members are key players in the advancement of this process and that they work closely with feminist organizations within East Timor While I drew on much secular theory and practice in the course of this study my personal beliefs and practices are guided by the teachings of the Baha i Faith The Baha i teachings include much that is relevant to this study and thus I have drawn on and presented Baha i perspectives and approaches to such things as equality and men s role in its establishment social and economic development and the culture of contest and have 3 drawn on Baha i principles in the discussion of results and subsequently in drawing my conclusions By exploring the implications of interventions implemented in other parts of the world and of theory pertaining to social development masculinities and a culture of contest I identified that interventions in East Timor to engage men in gender equality would be strengthened by giving due consideration to the following developing participants ability to communicate providing opportunity for and developing the capacity of participants to critically reflect on their environment addressing participants as whole human beings and members of one human race and actively engaging participants in the development and ownership of knowledge I concluded that three areas requiring immediate attention include the development of evaluation tools and processes and the systematic documentation and sharing of learning as well as research into masculinities in an East Timorese context

Teaching Asian America Lane Ryo Hirabayashi, 1998 This innovative volume offers the first sustained examination of the myriad ways Asian American Studies is taught at the university level Through this lens this volume illuminates key debates in U S society about pedagogy multiculturalism diversity racial and ethnic identities and communities formed on these bases Asian American Studies shares critical concerns with other innovative fields that query representation positionality voice and authority in the classroom as well as in the larger society Acknowledging these issues twenty one distinguished contributors illustrate how disciplinary and interdisciplinary approaches to Asian American Studies can be utilized to make teaching and learning about diversity more effective Teaching Asian America thus offers new and exciting insights about the state of ethnic studies and about the challenges of pluralism that face us as we move into the twenty first century

Jewish Masculinity in the Holocaust Maddy Carey, 2017-10-05 This book explores for the first time the impact of the Holocaust on the gender identities of Jewish men Drawing on historical and sociological arguments it specifically looks at the experiences of men in France Holland Belgium and Poland Jewish Masculinity in the Holocaust starts by examining the gendered environment and ideas of Jewish masculinity during the interwar period and in the run up to the Holocaust The volume then goes on to explore the effect of Nazi persecution on various elements of male gender identity analysing a wide range of sources including diaries and journals written at the time underground ghetto newspapers and numerous memoirs written in the intervening years by survivors Taken together these sources show that Jewish masculinities were severely damaged in the initial phases of persecution particularly because men were unable to perform the gendered roles they expected of themselves More controversially however Maddy Carey also shows that the escalation of the persecution and later enclosure whether through ghettoisation or hiding offered men the opportunity to reassert their masculine identities Finally the book discusses the impact of the Holocaust on the practice of fatherhood and considers its effect on the transmission of masculinity This important study breaks new ground in its coverage of gender and masculinities and is an important text for anyone studying the history of the Holocaust

The SAGE Handbook of Gender and Education Christine Skelton, Becky Francis, Lisa Smulyan, 2006-10-23 The Handbook of Gender and Education brings together leading scholars on gender and education to provide an up to date and broad ranging guide to the field It is a comprehensive overview of different theoretical positions on equity issues in schools The contributions cover all sectors of education from early years to higher education curriculum subjects methodological and theoretical perspectives and gender identities in education Each chapter reviews synthesises and provides a critical interrogation of key contemporary themes in education This approach ensures that the book will be an indispensable source of reference for a wide range of readers students academics and practitioners The first section of the Handbook Gender Theory and Methodology outlines the various feminist perspectives on researching and exploring gender and education The section critiques the notion of gender as a category in educational research and considers recent trends evident especially in the gender and underachievement debates to locate gender difference solely within biology This section provides the broad background upon which the issues and debates in the other sections can be situated Section two Gender and Education considers the differing ways in which gender has been shown to impact upon the opportunities and experiences of pupils students teachers and other adults in the different sectors of education It also includes a chapter on single sex schooling Section three Gender and School Subjects comprises chapters that cover gender issues within the teaching and learning of particular school subjects for example maths literacy and science It also includes topics such as sex education and assessment The chapters in section four Gender identity and educational sites address up to date issues which have a long history in terms of explorations into gender and educational opportunities More recent inclusions in the debates such as disability sexuality and masculinities are discussed alongside the more traditional concerns of race social class and femininities The final section Working in Schools and Colleges illuminates the working lives of teachers and academics The chapters cover such topics as school culture career progression and development and the gendered identities of professionals within educational institutions The contributors to this book have been selected by the editors as authorities in their specific area of gender and education and are drawn from the international scholarly community

Extra-Ordinary Men Nicola

Rehling,2010-06-21 Extra Ordinary Men analyzes popular cinematic representations of white heterosexual masculinity as the ordinary form of male identity one that enjoys considerable economic social political and representational strength Nicola Rehling argues that while this normative position affords white heterosexual masculinity ideological and political dominance such ordinariness also engenders the anxiety that it is a depthless vacuous and unstable identity At a time when the neutrality of white heterosexual masculinity has been challenged by identity politics this insightful volume offers lucid accounts of contemporary theoretical debates on masculinity in popular cinema and explores the strategies deployed in popular films to reassert white heterosexual male hegemony through detailed readings of films as diverse as Fight Club Boys Don't Cry and The Matrix Accessible to undergraduates but also of interest to film scholars the book makes a distinctive contribution to our understanding of the ways in which popular film helps construct and maintain many unexamined assumptions about masculinity gender race and sexuality
