Charles Dickens in Love Robert Garnett, 2021-08-31 Using hundreds of primary sources Charles Dickens in Love narrates the story of the most intense romances of Charles Dickens life and shows how his novels both testify to his own strongest affections and serve as memorials to the young women he loved all too well if not always wisely When Charles Dickens died in 1870 he was the best known man in the English speaking world the preeminent Victorian celebrity universally mourned as both a noble spirit and the greatest of novelists Yet the first person named in his will was an unknown woman named Ellen Ternan only a handful of people had any idea who she was Of his romance with Ellen Dickens had written it belongs to my life and probably will only die out of the same with the proprietor and so it was She remained the most important person in his life until his death She was not the first woman who had fired his imagination As a young man he had fallen deeply in love with a woman who pervaded every chink and crevice of his mind for three years Maria Beadnell When she eventually jilted him he vowed that I never can love any human creature but yourself A few years later he was stunned by the sudden death of his young sister in law Mary Scott Hogarth and worshiped her memory for the rest of his life

I solemnly believe that so perfect a creature never breathed he declared and he died over thirty years later still wearing her ring Charles Dickens has no rival as the most fertile creative imagination since William Shakespeare and no one influenced his imagination more powerfully than these three women his muses and teachers in the school of love      Canadian Who's Who 2007 Elizabeth Lumley,2007 Now in its ninety seventh year of publication this standard Canadian reference source contains the most comprehensive and authoritative biographical information on notable living Canadians Those listed are carefully selected because of the positions they hold in Canadian society or because of the contribution they have made to life in Canada The volume is updated annually to ensure accuracy and 600 new entries are added each year to keep current with developing trends and issues in Canadian society Included are outstanding Canadians from all walks of life politics media academia business sports and the arts from every area of human activity Each entry details birth date and place education family career history memberships creative works honours and awards and full addresses Indispensable to researchers students media business government and schools Canadian Who s Who is an invaluable source of general knowledge      The Classmate ,1895      Army-Navy-Air Force Register and Defense Times ,1914      The United States Army and Navy Journal and Gazette of the Regular and Volunteer Forces ,1913      How to Beat the Credit Crunch Jane Furnival,2009-03-05
