

Smoke

Every time I need a re-set
Like when I move in
Want to get rid of the past
Wash away density and negativity
I burn sage
Smoke palo santo
Smudge incense
Dropping the ash
Allowing the smoke to fill
And then to clear away

Smoke Poems:

Smoke Dorianne Laux, 2013-12-20 Dorianne Laux's long awaited third book of poetry follows her collection What We Carry a finalist for the 1994 National Book Critics Circle Award for Poetry. In Smoke Laux revisits familiar themes of family, working class lives and the pleasures of the body in poetry that is vital and artfully crafted, poetry that gets hard in the face of aloofness in the words of one reviewer. In Smoke as in her previous work Laux weaves the warp and woof of ordinary lives into extraordinary and complex tapestries. In The Shipfitter's Wife a woman recalls her husband's homecoming at the end of his work day: Then I'd open his clothes and take the whole day inside me: the ship's gray sides, the miles of copper pipe, the voice of the foreman clanging off the hull's silver ribs, Spark of lead kissing metal, The clamp, the winch, the white fire of the torch, the whistle and the long drive home. And in the title poem Laux muses on her own guilty pleasures: Who would want to give it up, the coal, a cat's eye in the dark room, no one there but you and your smoke, the window cracked to street sounds, the distant cries of living things. Alone you are almost safe. With her keen ear and attentive eye Dorianne Laux offers us a universe with which we are familiar but gives it to us fresh. Dorianne Laux is the author of two previous collections of poetry from BOA Editions Ltd and is co-author with Kim Addonizio of The Poet's Companion: A Guide to the Joys of Writing Poetry W.W. Norton 1997, chosen as an alternate selection by several bookclubs. Laux was the judge for the 2012 A. Poulin Jr Poetry Contest and is a tenured professor in the creative writing program at the University of Oregon. Laux lives in Eugene, Oregon.

Smoke Jeanne Bryner, 2012 Poems      Smoke Ayesha Faines, 2016-01-06 Smoke is a soulful, sensual exploration of love through the eyes of a woman who spent much of her twenties walking the periphery. From the impassioned locks to the tongue in cheek arithmetic, Smoke pleasurable swings between eroticism, fantasy and full on confessional. Rich in narrative lyricism and astonishing candor, Smoke infuses an age old subject with sobering observations about sexuality, politics, race, longing and as the title alludes, the startling power of bad habits.      Fog and Smoke Katie Peterson, 2024-01-02 Peterson unfurls the quotidian fabric of our lives, patterned with the difficulties of language and this moment. Confusion frames the human predicament. In Katie Peterson's Fog and Smoke, confusion is literally our climate. Writing to and from the California landscape, Peterson sees fog and smoke as literal, one a habitual natural weather event, the other an increasingly common aftereffect of the West's drought caused fires. But they are also metaphysical. Fog and smoke reflect the true conditions and frustrations of our ability to perceive and to connect. Peterson writes, I've been speaking about it at a distance. Now I want to talk about its thickness. A person could get killed in here. The collection moves through three sections. First, the poet follows her local fog's cyclical journey of descent and dispersion. Second, in a sort of pastoral interlude, she travels widely, almost erratically, to the California desert, the greater world and ancient history. Finally, she descends into the enclosed space of the household and the increased confinement and intimacy of raising a child during the pandemic. Peterson unfolds the small moments that make up our lives and reveals the truths contained within them, and her poems capture the lyricism of our daily
