Relations Writer Natalie T. J. Tindall, Amber L. Hutchins, Ronald D. Smith, 2025-03-31 The seventh edition of Becoming a Public Relations Writer serves as an essential guide to the writing process for public relations practice. The text covers public relations writing formats across digital and traditional media, providing comprehensive examples, guidelines, and exercises to learn the fundamentals of public relations writing and help students practice their writing and editing skills. This new edition is significantly streamlined with numerous updates throughout. It features updated, diverse, and inclusive examples and expands its coverage of writing for digital and social media, addressing influencer relations, media pitching, and media catching. A standalone chapter on ethics and legal issues for the PR writer also informs every chapter of the text. Helpful pedagogy includes in-class discussion prompts and writing assignments. This seventh edition is an ideal text for undergraduate and postgraduate courses in public relations writing. Free additional online resources include chapter summaries, assignments, test bank, sample syllabi, and other resources for the PR writer. Please visit www.routledge.com/9781032159324.

Environmental Communication and the Public Sphere Phaedra C. Pezzullo, Robert Cox, 2025-07-23 The Seventh Edition of the award-winning Environmental Communication and the Public Sphere is the best-selling comprehensive introduction in the field of environmental communication. This groundbreaking book focuses on the role that human communication plays in influencing the ways we perceive, transform, and attempt to heal relations with everything we consider to be the environment, from microscopic chemicals in cosmetics to the climate we breathe. Authors Phaedra C. Pezzullo and Robert Cox examine how we define what constitutes an environmental problem and how we decide what actions to take concerning the natural world. The updated and revised Seventh Edition explores recent events and research that have emerged since the last edition, including the latest on the impact of artificial intelligence (AI) on journalism, climate commitments of Big Tech, global climate justice, course cases, mutual aid, networking, ultra-processed food, policy, anti-plastics advocacy, expanding legal rights of nonhuman animals, and more.

Mastering United States Government Information Christopher C. Brown, 2025-08-21 The second edition of an award-winning text on government information for information professionals and those researching all branches of the US government. A comprehensive textbook for library school courses on US government information, the second edition of Mastering United States Government Information can also be relied upon as a training tool for those new to the government documents community. Written by Christopher C. Brown, coordinator of government documents at the University of Denver, this approachable book provides an introduction to all major areas of US government information, including detailed information on all three branches of federal government as well as state and local government. This wide-ranging resource teaches readers to use census data, understand the regulatory process, cite government data, work with mapping and geographic information systems, and navigate intellectual property. Important updates to the second edition include a robust look at Data.census.gov, further elaboration on bill tracking, and enhanced instructional tools for dealing with documents that will never change and the ever-changing discovery tools and web portals that have transformed access to these documents Examples throughout the text help users understand real life information challenges while exercises at the end of chapters help them become comfortable answering government information questions on their own Several appendixes serve as quick reference sources Students and practitioners will appreciate Brown s clear writing style and the breadth of information in this valuable resource

Airstream Country Neil Mathison, 2025-03-04 A herd of bison standing in the snow Layered bluffs of multicolored sandstone A silver Airstream trailer on a mountain highway These are familiar sights for Neil Mathison and his wife Susan Newly retired their son in college they embark upon a great American road trip uncoupled from the tyranny of calendars or a specific journey Airstream Country recounts their travels across the western United States as they move from Montana to Malibu and Seattle to Silverton winding their way through millions of years of geological history with their Airstream in tow Along the way they encounter upheavals and depositions ancient seas and young mountains and stone towers and striated canyons which are all illuminated by Mathison s knowledgeable commentary Even after thousands of miles and eons of geology their adventures are never finished for as Mathison writes We learn by travel where we ought to travel more
