Marine recruiting television commercials American war movies and General Schwarzkopf's autobiography elaborating how a certain image of American masculinity is played out in the military imaginary and in the media Other topics are Melville's The Confidence Man Bunuel's film That Obscure Object of Desire and a comparison of the U.S. invasion of Grenada to an Aztec flower war Throughout Shapiro draws attention to the violence of the colonial encounters through which many modern nation states were formed and ultimately suggests possible directions for an ethics of minimal violence in the encounter with others The overall effect is of a complex cumulative and layered analysis of the historical and moral conditions of the current use of violence in the conduct of international relations A fascinating and challenging work Violent Cartographies will interest anyone concerned with the connections between war and culture

War and Photography Caroline Brothers, 2013-03-07 Drawing on the work of Barthes Eco Foucault Baudrillard Burgin and Tagg and on the historians of mentalities War and Photography presents a theoretical approach to the understanding of press photography in its historical and contemporary context Brothers applies her argument with special reference to French and British newspaper images of the Spanish Civil War a selection of which is presented in the book Rejecting analyses based upon the content of the images alone she argues that photographic meaning is largely predetermined by its institutional and cultural context Acting as witnesses despite themselves photographs convey a wealth of information not about any objective reality but about the collective attitudes and beliefs particular to the culture in which they operate

H.C. Westermann at War David McCarthy, 2004 This book examines the antiwar work of one American artist in relation to the cultural history of the Cold War The study provides new and detailed information on this important artist while also contributing to the study of masculinity dissent art violence and war in the last half of the twentieth century The study clearly reveals that artists' protests against American foreign policy began well before the official U.S. entry in the Vietnam War and that not all combat veterans looked back fondly on their experience of the Good War Finally in drawing attention to the challenges of being a man in a hostile world Westermann's art enters into a much broader consideration of gender long before this issue became topical in contemporary art
