Stepping Out With Grandma Mac:

Stepping Out with Grandma Mac Nikki Grimes, 2014-05-30 This series of 20 short poems by Nikki Grimes chronicle the relationship between a ten year old girl and her grandmother As the book progresses we come to recognize how alike these two strong minded outspoken characters are and how much they love each other Booklist Starred Review Cultural Journeys Pamela S. Gates, Dianne L. Hall Mark, 2010-08-16 As multicultural education is becoming integral to the core curriculum teachers often implement this aspect into their courses through literature However standards and criteria to teach and promote active discussion about this literature are sparse Cultural Journeys introduces pre service and experienced teachers to the use of literature to promote active discussions that lead students to think about racial diversity More than just an annotated list of books for children Pamela S Gates and Dianne L Hall Mark provide systematic guidelines that teachers can use throughout their careers to evaluate multicultural literature for students in grades K 8 At the same time the text leads the reader to a deeper understanding of how to use multicultural literature throughout the entire curriculum and not just during specially designated months or time periods With the example unit plans and extensive annotated bibliography this book is a valuable resource that pre service teachers will utilize when they begin teaching and in service teachers will reference repeatedly during their planning periods Books Children Love (Revised Edition)

Elizabeth Laraway Wilson, 2002-10-30 A love for reading is one of the most precious gifts that we can give children It nurtures their imagination and creativity lets them explore other worlds and opens their minds to new truths and knowledge in appealing inspiring ways But how can we sort through thousands of children s books to discover the really worthwhile ones Elizabeth Wilson offers us a newly revised comprehensive guide to the very best in children s literature Just as in the original volume she comments on the tone and content of excellently written captivating books in over two dozen subject areas Hundreds of new titles have been added while retaining timeless classics and modern favorites all of which respect traditional values So that no matter what the children s ages are or whether they love fact or fiction you can trust these books to share things that you can believe in and kids will delight in Poetry in Literature for Youth Angela Leeper, 2006-03-28 Poetry in Literature for Youth offers teachers librarians parents and students with an instrumental guide for incorporating all forms of poetry into the curriculum More than 900 annotated entries provide descriptions of books and other resources including anthologies classics various poetry formats poetry novels multicultural poetry performance poetry teen poetry poet biographies and curriculum connections Educators who are often unaware of the poetry resources available particularly for young adults will welcome this book with open arms Lists for building a core poetry collection along with resources for teaching poetry criticism and writing electronic poetry resources booktalks classroom activities and lesson plans complement this guide Author Geographic Grade Subject and Title indexes are also included For anyone interested in knowing more about poetry in literature this is an indispensable guide African Traditional And Oral Literature As

Pedagogical Tools In Content Area Classrooms Lewis Asimeng-Boahene, Michael Baffoe, 2013-12-01 For a long time many American educators and educational stakeholders have drawn their ideas for educational reforms from ideas generated in Europe and Asia for the changing demographics of America's diverse classrooms. This book is therefore motivated by a bold attempt at advocating for the revision of existing pedagogic fora and the creation and addition of new fora that would provide for the inclusion of thoughts, perspectives and practices of African traditional oral literature in the pedagogical tools of content area classrooms especially in North America. The articles that are presented in this book provide theoretical frameworks for using African traditional oral literature and its various tenets as teaching tools. They bring together new voices of how African literature could be used as a helpful tool in classrooms. Rationale for agitating for its use as an ideal pedagogic tool is the recurrent theme throughout the various articles presented. The book explores how educators, literacy educators, learners, activists, policy makers and curriculum developers can utilize the powerful yet untapped gem of African oral literature as pedagogical tools in content area classrooms to help expand educators' repertoire of understanding beyond the conventional wisdom of their pedagogic creed. It is a comprehensive work of experienced and diverse scholars, academicians and educators who have expertise in multicultural education, traditional oral literature, urban education, children's literature and culturally responsive pedagogy that have become the focus of U.S. discourses in public education and teacher preparation. This anthology serves as part of the quest for multiple views about our global village, emphasizing the importance of linking the idea of diverse knowledge with realities of global trends and development. Consequently, the goal and the basic thrust of this anthology is to negotiate for space for non-mainstream epistemology to share the pedagogical floor with the mainstream template to foster an alternative vision of reality for other knowledge production in the academic domain. The uniqueness of this collection is the idea of bringing the content and the pedagogy of most of the genres of African oral arts under one umbrella and thereby offering a practical acquaintance and appreciation with different African cultures. It therefore introduces the world of African mind and thoughts to the readers. In summary, this anthology presents an academic area which is now gaining its long overdue recognition in the academia. Black Authors and Illustrators of Books for Children and Young Adults Barbara Thrash Murphy, Deborah L. Murphy, 2006-12-21 Black Authors and Illustrators of Books for Children and Young Adults is a biographical dictionary that provides comprehensive coverage of all major authors and illustrators past and present. As the only reference volume of its kind available, this book is a valuable research tool that provides quick access for anyone studying black children's literature, whether one is a student, a librarian charged with maintaining a children's literature collection or a scholar of children's literature. The Fourth Edition of this renowned reference work illuminates African American contributions to children's literature and books for young adults. The new edition contains updated and new information for existing author/illustrator entries, the addition of approximately 50 new profiles and a new section listing online resources of interest to the authors and readers of black children's literature Black Communications and Learning to Read Terry Meier, 2020-08-19 This book is about effective literacy instruction for students in grades K-4 who use the language variety that many linguists call African American English but which as explained in the Introduction the author calls Black Communications (BC). Throughout considerable attention is given to discussing the integral and complex interconnections among African American language culture and history drawing significantly on examples from African American historical and literary sources. Although it is theoretical in its description of the BC system and its discussion of research on language socialization in African American communities the major focus of this book is pedagogy. Many concrete examples of successful classroom practices are included so that teachers can readily visualize and use the strategies and principles presented. Part I What is Black Communications presents an overview of the BC system providing a basic introduction to the major components of the language: phonology, grammar, lexicon, and pragmatics, and illustrating how these components work in synchrony to create a coherent whole. Part II Language Socialization in the African American Discourse Community examines existing research on African American children's language socialization. Part III Using African American Children's Literature draws connections between strategy instruction and the linguistic and rhetorical abilities discussed in Part II. Each chapter ends with suggestions for using African American literature to help children develop their speaking and writing abilities. Part IV Children Using Language moves from a focus on teaching comprehension strategies to helping BC speakers learn to decode text. This volume is directed to researchers, faculty, and graduate students in the fields of language and literacy education and linguistics and is well suited as a text for graduate-level courses in these areas. Poetry People Sylvia M. Vardell, 2007-06-30 Dr. Sylvia Vardell's new children's poetry reference book provides a comprehensive introduction to more than 60 contemporary young people's poets. Focusing primarily on those who are still actively writing today, the author includes poets appropriate for young children through young adults. Each entry features brief biographical information, highlights selected poetry books authored, showcases awards won, notes related Web sites, and provides suggestions for making connections, programming ideas, related books, and activities. The book is ideal for librarians who serve children and young adults as well as for teachers and others who work with children and young adults. Beginning with Arnold Adoff, the list of poets is both impressive and informative. A sample: Francisco Alarcon, Aileen Fisher, Douglas Florian, Nikki Giovanni, Kristine O'Connell, George Jane Yolen, Eloise Greenfield, John Ciardi, and many more. Writing Essentials Regie Routman, 2005. Accompanying DVD includes videos of the author working with student writers.
