Stepping Stones Appropriate Technology And Beyond:

Stepping Stones Lane De Moll, Gigi Coe, 1978 Stepping Stones ; Appropriate Technology and Beyond L. DE MOLL, G. COE, 1978 A Training Manual in Appropriate Community Technology, 1982 Resettling America Gary J. Coates, 2023-06-10 Nominated for 1982 Transformational Book Award an international competition sponsored by Renewal Magazine Technology Choice Kelvin W Willoughby, 2019-07-09 This book attempts to provide a theoretical framework for answering difficult questions evoked by the concept of technology choice primarily by conducting a review of the Appropriate Technology movement and its ideas and experiments Beyond Schools Horace B. Reed, Elizabeth Lee Loughran, 1984 This compendium volume summarizes a study on the characteristics and underlying assumptions of education beyond schools The three chapters in Part I present a method for analyzing and comparing 10 distinct approaches to out of school education and demonstrate the important kinds of generalizations this method can generate Chapter 1 is an introduction Chapter 2 describes the methodology developed to analyze the broad range of data The framework for the 10 essays upon which the study is based is detailed Chapter 3 presents the results of the analysis across the 10 approaches Similarities and differences are highlighted and some basic characteristics of nonschool education are suggested Part II consists of 10 chapters describing each approach Each essay is organized around four components description of the approach pervasive themes social change and learning theories and delivery variables Within the approaches 20 subsets are identified and treated as separate units Suggested resources bibliography journals and resource centers conclude each essay These 10 approaches are described nonformal education education for community development appropriate technology educational innovation in the workplace human services community legal education self help groups museum education community education and adult basic and continuing education YLB The Fourth Wave Herman Maynard, Susan E. Mehrtens, 1996-08-31 Applying the concept of historical waves originally propounded by Alvin Toffler in The Third Wave Herman Maynard and Susan Mehrtens look toward the next century and foresee a fourth wave an era of integration and responsibility far beyond Toffler's revolutionary description of third wave postindustrial society Whether we attain this stage of global well being however will depend on how well our business institutions adapt and change The Fourth Wave examines the ways business has changed in the second and third waves and must continue to change in the fourth The changes concern the basics how an institution is organized how it defines wealth how it relates to surrounding communities how it responds to environmental needs and how it takes part in the political process Maynard and Mehrtens foresee a radically different future in which business principles concern for the environment personal integrity and spiritual values are integrated The authors also demonstrate the need for a new kind of leadership managers and CEOs who embrace an attitude of global stewardship who define their assets as ideas information creativity and vision and who strive for seamless boundaries between work and private lives for all employees Energy Education Materials Inventory: August 1979
