Stereotypes Minoritiesfamil:

Navigating Model Minority Stereotypes Rupam Saran, 2015-08-11 Though Asian Indians are typically thought of as a model minority not much is known about the school experiences of their children Positive stereotyping of these immigrants and their children often masks educational needs and issues creates class divides within the Indian American community and triggers stress for many Asian Indian students This volume examines second generation America born and 1.5 generation foreign born Asian Indians as they try to balance peer culture home life and academics It explores how through the acculturation process these children either take advantage of this positive stereotype or refute their stereotyped ethnic image and move to downward mobility Focusing on migrant experiences of the Indian diasporas in the United States this volume brings attention to highly motivated Asian Indian students who are overlooked because of their cultural dispositions and outlooks on schooling and those students who are more likely to underachieve It highlights the assimilation of Asian Indian students in mainstream society and their understandings of Americanization social inequality diversity and multiculturalism

Unconventional Warfare in South Asia, 1947 to the Present Kaushik Roy, 2017-03-02 Unconventional war is an umbrella term which includes insurgencies counter insurgencies terrorism and religious conflicts Insurgencies and communal conflicts have become much more common in this region since 1947 and more people have died in South Asia due to unconventional wars than conventional warfare The essays in this volume are organized in two sections While the first section deals with insurgencies counter insurgencies and terrorism the second section covers the religious aspects of the various intra state conflicts which mar the multi ethnic societies of South Asia

Reading History with the Tamil Jains R. Umamaheshwari, 2018-01-25 This book provides a social history of the Tamil Jains a minority community living in Tamil Nadu in south India It holds special significance in the method of studying the community living in villages of Tamil Nadu and retrieving their perspectives on their past This is a new approach in terms of historiography from extant works on Jainism in south India A major feature of this book is the hitherto uncovered aspect of the question of language and identity caste and the modern socio political movements in Tamil Nadu such as the Self Respect Movement initiated by Periyar in which some Tamil Jains were active participants Special features in the book include photographs of the community and monuments maps and a unique style which combines a journalistic approach and academic historical research This book is of interest to readers of Tamil language and history and to anyone working on the idea of politics of marginalisation of religious identities idea as of memory and community narratives of shared history in the face of religious persecution Killing the Model Minority Stereotype Nicholas Daniel Hartlep, Brad J. Porfilio, 2015-06-01 Killing the Model Minority Stereotype comprehensively explores the complex permutations of the Asian model minority myth exposing the ways in which stereotypes of Asian Americans operate in the service of racism Chapters include counter narratives critical analyses and transnational perspectives This volume connects to overarching projects of decolonization which social justice educators and practitioners will find useful for understanding how the model minority myth functions to uphold white supremacy and how complicity has a damaging impact in its perpetuation. The book adds a timely contribution to the model minority discourse. The contributors to this book demonstrate that the insidious model minority stereotype is alive and well. At the same time, the chapters carefully and powerfully examine ways to deconstruct and speak back to these misconceptions of Asian Americans. Hartlep and Porfilio pull together an important volume for anyone interested in how racial and ethnic stereotypes play out in the lives of people of color across various contexts. Vichet Chhuon, University of Minnesota Twin Cities. This volume presents valuable additions to the model minority literature exploring narratives challenging stereotypes in a wide range of settings and providing helpful considerations for research and practice. David W. Chih, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. Asian Pacific Islander adolescents and young adults are especially impacted by the model minority stereotype, and this volume details the real-life consequences for them and for all communities of color. The contributors provide a wide-ranging critique and deconstruction of the stereotype by uncovering many of its manifestations, and they also take the additional step of outlining clear strategies to undo the stereotype and prevent its deleterious effects on API youth. Killing the Model Minority Stereotype: Asian American Counterstories and Complicity is an essential read for human service professionals, educators, therapists, and all allies of communities of color. Joseph R. Mills, LICSW, Asian Counseling and Referral Service, Seattle, WA.

State of the World's Minorities and Indigenous Peoples 2016 Peter Grant, 2016-07-12. The unique cultures of minorities and indigenous peoples worldwide, spanning a wide variety of customs and practices, are under threat. This year's edition of State of the World's Minorities and Indigenous Peoples highlights the impact of land dispossession, forced assimilation, and other forms of discrimination on the most fundamental aspects of their identity, including language, art, traditional knowledge, and spirituality. But while the effects of this attrition can be devastating, minority and indigenous cultures have also been critical in strengthening communities and providing activists with a platform to fight for their rights. As this volume illustrates, ensuring that the cultural freedoms of minorities and indigenous peoples are protected is essential if their other rights are also to be respected.

Journal of Tamil Studies, 2002. The Routledge International Handbook of Social Work Teaching Jarosław Przeperski, Rajendra Baikady, 2024-04-09. This handbook is a comprehensive text on social work education based on the narratives of social work educators, practitioners, and researchers from Asia and the Pacific, North and South America, Australia, and Oceania, and Europe. It discusses innovations, challenges, pedagogy, and tested methods of social work teaching at various levels of educational programmes. The volume examines key concepts that underpin debates concerning social work teaching, research, and practice. It brings out key concerns, debates, and narratives concerning various teaching, learning, and pedagogical methods from different countries. It documents principal perspectives of different stakeholders involved in social work education, from educators and practitioners to novice social workers. The Routledge International Handbook of Social Work Teaching will be an effective instrument in informing policy decisions.

related to social work teaching and pedagogy at the global and local levels It will be essential for educators researchers and practitioners within social work institutions and for professional associations around the world

State of the World's Minorities and Indigenous Peoples 2014 Peter Grant, 2014-08-31 Across the world minorities and indigenous peoples are disproportionately exposed to hatred From intimidation and verbal abuse to targeted violence and mass killing this hatred often reflects and reinforces existing patterns of exclusion The impacts also extend beyond the immediate effects on individual victims to affect entire communities in the process further marginalizing them from basic services participation and other rights This year's edition of State of the World's Minorities and Indigenous Peoples highlights how hate speech and hate crime though frequently unreported or unacknowledged continue to impact on every aspect of their lives The volume also documents many of the initiatives being taken to promote positive change and the different ways that governments civil society and communities can strengthen protections for minorities and indigenous peoples An exploration of key issues such as hate crime and hate speech as well as ways to counter their prevalence The dynamics of targeted attacks and hate speech in conflict situations as well as the particular vulnerability of minority and indigenous women A global examination of the legal standards in the area of hate crime legislation Interviews and case studies from minorities and indigenous communities including examples of grassroots organizations working to improve their protection and representation Overviews of the human rights context for minorities and indigenous peoples in every major world region Peoples under Threat 2014 MRG's unique statistical analysis and ranking of the vulnerability of minorities and indigenous peoples worldwide An invaluable reference for policy makers academics journalists and everyone who is interested in the human rights situation of minorities and indigenous peoples around the world

Tamils, Social Capital and Educational Marginalization in Singapore Lavanya Balachandran, 2021-07-29 Labouring to Learn examines academic mobility pathways among ethnic minority Tamil youths in public secondary schools and vocational institutions in Singapore This book qualitatively examines the interactive effects of race and class on the educational performance of these youths through the lens of social capital Despite their numerical majoritarian position within the Indian population in Singapore the foreclosed access for Tamils to diverse class networks within the ethnic community as well as limited inter ethnic interactions has historically truncated the means to resources and opportunities for social mobility In schools the narratives shared by Tamil boys and girls from the lower academic streams and economically disadvantaged backgrounds reveal that they typically experience exclusion on account of racial economic and academic marginalisation in their everyday lives Turning to bonding ties among peers and family members provides social support resources that offer some respite from marginalisation On the flipside articulations of resistance ensue among Tamil youths that tangibly take time away from learning and run the danger of strengthening the cultural deficit rhetoric for mainstream society to explain the poor academic performance among ethnic minorities This account of educational marginalisation amongst Singaporean Tamil youths contributes towards understanding social inequality in a non liberal multicultural context where marginalisation is differentially experienced across ethnic minority groups and traced to broader socio historical contexts of migration assimilation and minority majority relations Furthermore it also articulates the utility of a social capital framework in historically revealing how educational inequality emerged and continues to be sustained in a postcolonial context

Linguistic Rivalries Sonia N. Das, 2016-10-27 Linguistic Rivalries weaves together anthropological accounts of diaspora nation and empire to explore and analyze the multi faceted processes of globalization characterizing the migration social integration and language learning experiences of Tamil speaking immigrants and refugees from India and Sri Lanka to Montr al Qu bec in the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries
