the meaning we gather from them This book examines the roles that six different material cultures have played in film and television culture since the 1970s including video marketing branded merchandise drugs and alcohol and even gun violence and shows how objects considered peripheral to film and television culture are in fact central to its past and future Do Epic Stuff! René Esteban, 2020-04-08 Reach out for that big goal The methods of change management are outdated today focus and inspiration matter the most Ren Esteban shows leaders how to help their team to give their all for an attractive goal how to keep it in sight against all odds and how to work towards it with zeal and enthusiasm Ren mixes his own tried and tested experiences from the corporate world with surprisingly effective psychological methods Do Epic Stuff explains how leaders develop the kind of outstanding team which will be at the foundation of future organizations There is nothing more attractive than a goal full of purpose which makes everyone move in the same direction The insights from this book will be the tools for your great breakthrough success as a leader Top executives from the likes of Allianz BMW E ON and Deutsche Telekom contribute their expert knowledge on how to inspire teams and how to help them reach that big audacious goal Inspiring and focused Ren Esteban showcases that achieving epic business goals is possible Brian Tracy Author of the New York Times Bestseller Eat That Frog The Post-Earthquake City Paul Cloke, David Conradson, Eric Pawson, Harvey C. Perkins, 2023-02-15 This book critically assesses Christchurch New Zealand as an evolving post earthquake city It examines the impact of the 2010 13 Canterbury earthquake sequence employing a chronological structure to consider damage and displacement recovery and renewal and the city in transition It offers a framework for understanding the multiple experiences and realities of post earthquake recovery It details how the rebuilding of the city has occurred and examines what has arisen in the context of an unprecedented opportunity to refashion land uses and social experience from the ground up A recurring tension is observed between the desire and tendency of some to reproduce previous urban orthodoxies and the experimental efforts of others to fashion new cultures of progressive place making and attention to the more than human city The book offers several lessons for understanding disaster recovery in cities It illuminates the opportunities disasters create for both the reassertion of the familiar and the emergence of the new highlights the divergence of lived experience during recovery and considers the extent to which a post disaster city is prepared for likely climate futures The book will be valuable reading for critical disaster researchers as well as geographers sociologists urban planners and policy makers interested in disaster recovery Producing the Acceptable Sex Worker Gwyn Easterbrook-Smith, 2022-02-25 Producing the Acceptable Sex Worker considers how sex work is produced in news media narratives a site where much of the general public draws its understanding of the industry in the absence of lived interaction with it Taking New Zealand as a case study this book considers an emerging discourse of acceptability for some sex workers primarily those who do low volume indoor work Their acceptability is established in comparison with other kinds of sex workers resulting in a redistribution but not a reduction of stigma The conditions attached to acceptability reflect persistent anxieties about sex work workers who are acceptable must give the impression that the sexual labour of the job is enjoyable and virtually indistinguishable from their personal life eliding the work involved Unacceptable workers have existing marginalisations magnified by their association with the industry with migrant sex workers produced as devious or exploited and transgender women s involvement with the industry used to deny them the right to public space The conditions attached to acceptability reveal how neoliberal discourses of choice desire authenticity and personal responsibility inform the formation of sex work in the public eye

Prancing Lavender Bunnies and Other Stuff from the Darkside of Independent Cinema Paul Turner,2008-01-01 Irreverent stories about running an alternative locally owned independent movie theater in a small Oregon town appreciations of fiercely loyal patrons and rants about the peculiar business of dealing with movie studios Paul also writes about his earlier experiences running movie theaters some of which are now gone forever and his forays into the American West as seen from the seat of his motorcycle Movies and motorcycles twin passions for Paul provide a never ending supply of inspiration for Paul s creativity

Handbook of Victims and Victimology Sandra Walklate,2017-07-14 This second edition of the Handbook of Victims and Victimology presents a comprehensively revised and updated set of essays bringing together internationally recognised scholars and practitioners to offer substantial research informed overviews within their specialist fields of investigation This handbook is divided into five parts with each part addressing a different theme within victimology Part I offers a scene setting exploration of new developments in the field enduring issues that remain relatively unchanged and the gaps and traps within the contemporary victimological agenda Part II examines of the complex dimensions to victim experiences as structured by gender age ethnicity sexuality and intersectionality Part III reflects on the problems and possibilities of formulating policy responses in the light of the changing appreciation of the nature and extent of victimhood Part IV focused on the value of a comparative lens and the problems and possibilities of victim policies when seen through this lens explored along three geographical axes Europe Australia and Asia Part V considers other ways of thinking about who counts as a victim and what counts as victimhood and extends the boundaries of the victimological imagination outward Building on the success of the previous edition this book provides an international focus on cutting edge issues in the field of victimology Including brand new chapters on intersectionality child victims sexuality hate crime and crimes of the powerful this handbook is essential reading for students and academics studying victims and victimology and an essential reference tool for those working within the victim support environment

Stuff That Makes a Gay Heart Weep Freeman Hall,2010-10-18 In 150 quick and witty entries Freeman Hall captures every last detail of what makes every gay person flee the room in terror There s nothing gay men hate more than bad home d cor cheap vodka and men who take off their shirts but shouldn t especially when those things happen all at once They believe they re unique yet somehow they re all exactly the same bitching about Prop 8 and lamenting the sad fact that Bradley Cooper is straight A day without Bravo TV disco music frantic texting and just the right designer clothes is enough to spend the day weeping under the covers Well it

s not quite that extreme but it s definitely Stuff that Makes a Gay Heart Weep In this laugh out loud guide to the dislikes of millions the Freeman Hall shows in 150 succinct entries that it s just not fair for Caucasians to have all the fun You are invited to kick back pour yourself a Ketel One on the rocks and get lost in the bitchiest bitch fest west of the West Village and this side of the Castro

The Wright Stuff Bob Wright, Diane Mermigas, 2020-10-01 The former CEO of NBC reflects on his years at the pinnacle of network television and also on the Wrights work as co founders of Autism Speaks Palm Beach Daily News Named president and CEO of NBC at the age of 43 he faced a two headed dragon on one hand distrust from the network people deeply skeptical of the suit from GE their new corporate parent and on the other fiscal oversight demands from a cautious conservative institution reluctant to invest heavily in a media business they didn t understand For the next 20 years he managed to navigate the fine line between the two and in the process completely reinvent and save the network His name is Bob Wright Under his leadership a traditional network struggling to survive a changing landscape was transformed into a 45 billion cable and internet giant What does someone like that do when he retires If he s Bob Wright he starts all over again At almost the exact same time as Bob s NBC reign was winding down his grandson Christian was diagnosed with autism a condition then poorly understood Baffled by a lack of medical knowledge and community support Bob and his wife Suzanne founded Autism Speaks which in short order became the leading advocacy and research funding organization for this mysterious condition that so devastates families As the two story lines unfold in The Wright Stuff readers will gradually see that both endeavors revitalizing NBC and building Autism Speaks reflect the same key management tenets that apply to any organization facing disruptive change A portion of the proceeds from this book will be donated to advance autism research
