Muslim Women Seeking Power, Muslim Youth Seeking Justice Mahmoud Abubaker, Christopher Adam-Bagley, 2019-06-20 This volume explores the two themes of equity in employment for Muslim women and the identity and aspirations of Muslim youth in an age of Islamophobia in Western countries through conceptual and empirical studies of employment discrimination and alienation in the UK and the Netherlands To these accounts are added a worldwide perspective on how women and especially ethnic minority and Muslim women experience and try to overcome ethno religious discrimination in entry to employment The themes of Muslim women and youth struggling to survive are illustrated by accounts of teachers from Gaza who are providing alternative families for children traumatised and orphaned through Israeli attacks The idea of peaceful resistance and Islamic patience in the face of persecution is developed throughout the book and applied in a variety of settings

Temporality and Film Analysis Matilda Mroz, 2012-08-06 Matilda Mroz argues that cinema provides an ideal opportunity to engage with ideas of temporal flow and change Temporality however remains an underexplored area of film analysis which frequently discusses images as though they were still rather than moving This book traces the operation of duration in cinema and argues that temporality should be a central concern of film scholarship In close readings of Michelangelo Antonioni s L Avventura Andrei Tarkovsky s Mirror and the ten short films that make up Krzysztof Kie lowski s Decalogue series Mroz highlights how film analysis must consider both particular moments in cinema which are critically significant and the way in which such moments interrelate in temporal flux She explores the concepts of duration and rhythm resonance and uncertainty affect sense and texture to bring a fresh perspective to film analysis and criticism Essential reading for students and scholars in Film Studies this engaging study will also be a valuable resource for critical theorists

The Social Contract De Laclos Dangerous Liaisons Stendhal Edmund M. Burke Dan A. Bavly, 1999-02-28 Dan Bavly takes a fresh look at how business is supervised and how that system can be improved He begins by assessing the performance of the government regulator and suggests reasons for the failure to prevent many of the debacles of the recent past New fiascoes often engender a spate of legislation but the regulator remains the one who gets away he is simply not accountable and does not shoulder the blame Clearly a new definition of regulator responsibility is required Drawing on his years of company board and auditing experience Bavly analyzes why the average director cannot do his job and he shows how a complete but feasible overhaul of the way company boards function can help solve this problem Bavly then goes on to explore as an insider the profession of accounting and to show why the CPA should be considered an endangered species Along the way Bavly examines many of the difficult issues of contemporary accounting Where is the trend of mammoth accounting organizations leading Is the addiction to mergers suicidal How is the accounting profession coping with technology What is the relationship between the outside CPA and the corporate internal audit division For each specific flaw in the system Bavly provides a practical remedy The general message is the need for constant reassessment and perhaps a plea to cut all the agencies of corporate governance back to human proportions *The Pictorial Edition of the Works of Shakspeare.
