of the writers considered in this book described the relationship of Ireland and England as a mixture of showing off and suspicion nearly as bad as sex In these essays Roy Foster explores the patterns of resentment exploitation dependence and rejection which were created by centuries of proximity colonization and emigration Often seen through the individual experiences of people caught between England and Ireland a varied gallery including Randolph Churchill Thackeray Trollope Yeats Parnell and the notorious Mrs O Shea these intersections also cut across subjects like the representation of the Irish in Victorian journalism and fiction the roots of constitutional nationalist agitation and the making of literary reputations The last essay Marginal Men and Micks on the Make is a wide ranging discussion of the uses of exile both to and from Ireland Against the cut and dried stereotypes of Anglo Irish relations an overall ambiguity is asserted here whether the topic examined is the
