A Superior Romance Robert Williams, 2006-08 When I began working on this story I had a specific goal in mind I wanted to give my grandchildren some sense of the kind of person my father was He was encouraging he was knowledgeable he was helpful and he was a good listener He was such a big influence on me but he did not live long enough to ever see my grandchildren I was afraid the only thing they would ever know of him was a name on a marker in a cemetery so I thought I should put together some of my memories of Lee Williams Alas as I organized my ideas I ran into a problem I couldn't write about Dad and my teen age years without telling of my teen age romances I didn't want to hurt anybody's feelings so I had to alter some stories and craft new ones And once the stories became fiction this story literally began to re write the past When the world of fantasy is found to be so much more pleasurable than the real world what is wrong with enjoying our dreams for a little while

Sit Deborah Ellis, 2017-10-01 Nine poignant and empowering short stories from the author of The Breadwinner The seated child With a single powerful image Deborah Ellis draws our attention to nine children and the situations they find themselves in often through no fault of their own In each story a child makes a decision and takes action be that a tiny gesture or a life altering choice Jafar is a child laborer in a chair factory and longs to go to school Sue sits on a swing as she and her brother wait to have a supervised visit with their father at the children's aid society Gretchen considers the lives of concentration camp victims during a school tour of Auschwitz Mike survives seventy two days of solitary as a young offender Barry squirms on a food court chair as his parents tell him that they are separating Macie sits on a too small time out chair while her mother receives visitors for tea Noosala crouches in a fetid crowded apartment in Uzbekistan waiting for an unscrupulous refugee smuggler to decide her fate These children find the courage to face their situations in ways large and small in this eloquent collection from a master storyteller
