Women in Medieval History and Historiography Susan Mosher Stuard,2016-11-11 What was the status of women in the Middle Ages How have women fared in the hands of historians And what is the current state of research about women in the Middle Ages Susan Mosher Stuard addresses these questions in a collection of essays that delve in to the history and historiography of women in medieval England France Italy and Germany Contributors include Barbara Hanawalt Diane Owen Hughes Suzanne Wemple Denise Kaiser and Martha Howell One of the most interesting observations made in Women in Medieval History and Historiography is the way in which the history of women in each country has followed a distinct course that is in rhythm with other concerns of national historical writing Women in Medieval History and Historiography will interest historians scholars of women s studies and medievalists Women in Medieval Society Susan Mosher Stuard,2012-04-17 Early medieval women exercised public roles rights and responsibilities Women contributed through their labor to the welfare of the community Women played an important part in public affairs They practiced birth control through abortion and infanticide Women committed crimes and were indicted They owned property and administered estates The drive toward economic growth and expansion abroad rested on the capacity of women to staff and manage economic endeavors at home In the later Middle Ages the social position of women altered significantly and the reasons why the role of women in society tended to become more restrictive are examined in these essays Women in Medieval Europe 1200-1500 Jennifer Ward,2016-04-14 Women in Medieval Europe explores the key areas of female experience in the later medieval period from peasant women to Queens It considers the women of the later Middle Ages in the context of their social relationships during a time of changing opportunities and activities so that by 1500 the world of work was becoming increasingly restricted to women The chapters are arranged thematically to show the varied roles and lives of women in and out of the home covering topics such as marriage religion family and work For the second edition a new chapter draws together recent work on Jewish and Muslim women as well as those from other ethnic groups showing the wide ranging experiences of women from different backgrounds Particular attention is paid to women at work in the towns and specifically urban topics such as trade crafts healthcare and prostitution The latest research on women gender and masculinity has also been incorporated along with updated further reading recommendations This fully revised new edition is a comprehensive yet accessible introduction to the topic perfect for all those studying women in Europe in the later Middle Ages Women in Medieval Europe Jennifer Ward,2014-06-11 Women in Medieval Europe were expected to be submissive but such a broad picture ignores great areas of female experience Between the thirteenth and fifteenth centuries women are found in the workplace as well as the home and some women were numbered among the key rulers saints and mystics of the medieval world Opportunities and activities changed over time and by 1500 the world of work was becoming increasingly restricted for women Women of all social groups were primarily engaged with their families looking after husband and children and running the household Patterns of work varied geographically In the northern towns women engaged in a wide range of crafts with a small number becoming entrepreneurs Many of the poor made a living as servants and labourers Prostitution flourished in many medieval towns Some women turned to the religious life and here opportunities burgeoned in the thirteenth century The Middle Ages are not remote from the twenty first century the lives of medieval women evoke a response today The medieval mother faced similar problems to her modern counterpart The sheer variety of women s experience in the later Middle Ages is fully brought out in this book      Of Six Medieval Women Alice Kemp-Welch,1979
