Ministry of Illusion Eric Rentschler, 1996-10-01 Eric Rentschler argues that cinema in the Third Reich emanated from a Ministry of Illusion and not from a Ministry of Fear His analysis of the sophisticated media culture of this period demonstrates in an unprecedented way the potent and destructive powers of fascination and fantasy German Cinema Marc Silberman, 1995 German Cinema is the first English language volume to provide a comprehensive historical overview of German film from the silent era to the present as well as close readings of individual films In the history of German cinema film directors have developed unique visual and narrative responses to the anxieties and excesses of their own times and those of Germany's past German Cinema is the first English language volume to provide a comprehensive historical overview of German film from the silent era to the present as well as close readings of individual films Continental Strangers Gerd Gemünden, 2014-01-21 Hundreds of German speaking film professionals took refuge in Hollywood during the 1930s and 1940s making a lasting contribution to American cinema Hailing from Austria Hungary Poland Russia and the Ukraine as well as Germany and including Ernst Lubitsch Fred Zinnemann Billy Wilder and Fritz Lang these multicultural multilingual writers and directors betrayed distinct cultural sensibilities in their art Gerd Gemünden focuses on Edgar G. nostalgic desire Elisabeth Bronfen examines the different ways home is constructed in the development of cinematic narrative offering close readings of crucial scenes in classic films Popular Cinema of the Third Reich Sabine Hake, 2001

Too often dismissed as escapist entertainment or vilified as mass manipulation popular cinema in the Third Reich was in fact sustained by well established generic conventions cultural traditions aesthetic sensibilities social practices and a highly developed star system not unlike its Hollywood counterpart in the 1930s This pathfinding study contributes to the ongoing reassessment of Third Reich cinema by examining it as a social cultural economic and political practice that often conflicted with contradicted and compromised the intentions of the Propaganda Ministry Nevertheless by providing the illusion of a public sphere presumably free of politics popular cinema helped to sustain the Nazi regime especially during the war years Rather than examining Third Reich cinema through overdetermined categories such as propaganda ideology or fascist aesthetics Sabine Hake concentrates on the constituent elements shared by most popular cinemas famous stars directors and studios movie audiences and exhibition practices popular genres and new trends in set design the reception of foreign films the role of film criticism and the representation of women She pays special attention to the forced coordination of the industry in 1933 the changing demands on cinema during the war years and the various ways of coming to terms with these filmic legacies after the war Throughout Hake's findings underscore the continuities among Weimar Third Reich and post 1945 West German cinema They also emphasize the codevelopment of German and other national cinemas especially the dominant Hollywood model Film - An International Bibliography Malte Hagener, Michael Töteberg, 2016-12-16
