

Group Political Actions

- A group can be defined as an aggregation (gathering) of individuals who interact in order to pursue a common interest.
- The most significant factor that distinguishes a political group from other groups is that the group pursues a political objective.
- A distinction is also made between political interest groups and political parties.
- A political party is a certain type of political group, which seeks not merely to influence political decisions but also to place its members in the actual roles of government, such as chief executives and legislators.
