The Canadian Horror Film Gina Freitag, André Loiselle, 2015-01-01 From the cheaply made tax shelter films of the 1970s to the latest wave of contemporary eco horror, Canadian horror cinema has rarely received much critical attention. Gina Freitag and André Loiselle rectify that situation in The Canadian Horror Film with a series of thought-provoking reflections on Canada's terror of the soul, a wasteland of docile damnation and prosaic pestilence where savage beasts and mad scientists rub elbows with pasty suburbanites, grumpy seamen, and baby-faced porn stars. Featuring chapters on Pontypool, Ginger Snaps, 1970s slasher films, Quebec horror, and the work of David Cronenberg among many others, The Canadian Horror Film unearths the terrors hidden in the recesses of the Canadian psyche. It examines the highlights of more than a century of Canadian horror filmmaking and includes an extensive filmography to guide both scholars and enthusiasts alike through this treacherous terrain.

Just You & I: An Award-winning film Screenplay. William Smith, Marilyn Buttigieg, 2022-12-06 Here is the official screenplay book tie-in to the true story drama of a couple from the United Kingdom who share a large age gap. Just You & I introduces audiences to one of the most endearing taboos to ever hit our screens: Age Gap Relationships. They are still, to this day (2022), frowned upon by society but now are becoming widely accepted. However, when Marilyn met William, the year was 2005, and age gap relationships were NOT ACCEPTED. NOT ONE BIT. From Writers/Directors William Smith and Marilyn Buttigieg comes Just You & I, an Award-winning film.

about one age gap couples epic true story of love sacrifice and struggle After being given some devastating news Marilyn Cooper literally bumps into her destiny as she runs out of the hospital blinded by her own tears THEN BAM She collides with a young man on his way to work William Simmons who is stunned at first that the woman he had seen many times before but never dared to talk to was standing in front of him Before any words could leave his mouth fate was about to forsake him once more when without looking back Marilyn took off running down the street But fate wasn't done yet as he watched her running into the distance he noticed something out of the corner of his eye He looked down and saw Marilyn's purse laying at his feet The black purse would set their lives spiraling out of control Scriptwriting 2.0 Marie Drennan, 2017-05-12

Sears, 2014-09-22 A veteran writer presents his personal account of being in the trenches of the television industry offering advice and tactics for aspiring scriptwriters Steven L. Sears has had a successful career in film and television encompassing over thirty years of involvement at all levels From his beginnings as a staff writer on the hit NBC show The A Team to Co-Executive Producer on the hit series Xena Warrior Princess for MCA Universal creator and Executive Producer of Sheena for Sony TriStar Television and many pilot and development deals with the major studios and production companies he has amassed a huge amount of experience and knowledge about the inner workings of the entertainment industry In The Non-User-Friendly Guide for Aspiring Television Writers he shares that experience and gives advice for those considering a career in television writing Instead of the traditional academic and sterile approach Steven answers questions from a personal first person perspective The questions have been culled from the real world people seeking out his advice and looking for the experience that most books don't have Some of what he writes about are hard and difficult facts to accept about the business Other times it's his opinion based on his vast experience But all of it is unsweetened and direct Even if you don't like his answers he will certainly make you think hard about your approach and choices when pursuing a career in an extremely difficult industry As a result you will be better prepared to achieve the success that he has had Accessible personable and relaxed It's like having lunch with Steven and asking him questions about the business Without having to watch him eat Appreciating the Art of Television Ted Nannicelli, 2016-09-13 Contemporary television has been marked by such exceptional programming that it is now common to hear claims that TV has finally become an art. In Appreciating the Art of Television, Nannicelli contends that televisual art is not a recent development but has in fact existed for a long time. Yet despite the flourishing of two relevant academic subfields, the philosophy of film and television aesthetics, there is little scholarship on television in general as an art form. This book aims to provide scholars active in television aesthetics with a critical overview of the relevant philosophical literature while also giving philosophers of film a particular account of the art of television that will hopefully spur further interest and debate. It offers the first sustained theoretical examination of what is involved in appreciating television as an art and how this bears on the practical business of television: scholars, critics, students, and fans, namely the comprehension, interpretation, and evaluation of specific televisual artworks.
