Two things Christian reader particularly excite the will of man to good A principle of justice is one the other the profit we may derive therefrom All wise men therefore agree that justice and profit are the two most powerful inducements to move our wills to any undertaking Now though men seek profit more frequently than justice yet justice is in itself more powerful for as Aristotle teaches no worldly advantage can equal the excellence of virtue nor is any loss so great that a wise man should not suffer it rather than yield to vice Aeterna Press The Morning Exercises at Cripplegate [edited by S.
