Sinners Welcome Mary Karr, 2009-10-13 Mary Karr describes herself as a black belt sinner and this her fourth collection of poems traces her improbable journey from the inferno of a tormented childhood into a resolutely irreverent Catholicism Not since Saint Augustine wrote Give me chastity Lord but not yet has anyone brought such smart assed hilarity to a conversion story Karr's battle is grounded in common loss a bitter romance friends deaths a teenage son's leaving home as well as in elegies for a complicated mother The poems disarm with the arresting humor familiar to readers of her memoirs The Liars Club and Cherry An illuminating cycle of spiritual poems have roots in Karr's eight month tutelage in Jesuit prayer practice and as an afterword her celebrated essay on faith weaves the tale of how the language of poetry which relieved her suffering so young eventually became the language of prayer Those of us who fret that poetry denies consolation will find clear eyed joy in this collection

Sinners Welcome Mary Karr, 2006-02-28 A fourth compilation of poetry by the author of The Liars Club and Cherry describes her evolution into an irreverent Catholic detailing the various steps in her conversion and reflecting on the themes of loss her tutelage in Jesuit prayer practice and the influence of poetry as a pathway out of suffering 25 000 first printing

Cathedrals of Bone John C. Waldmeir, 2009-08-25 The metaphor of the Church as a body has shaped Catholic thinking since the Second Vatican Council Its influence on theological inquiries into Catholic nature and practice is well known less obvious is the way it has shaped a generation of Catholic imaginative writers Cathedrals of Bone is the first full length study of a cohort of Catholic authors whose art takes seriously the themes of the Council from novelists such as Mary Gordon Ron Hansen Louise Erdrich and J F Powers to poets such as Annie Dillard Mary Karr Lucia Perillo and Anne Carson to the Pulitzer Prize winning playwright John Patrick Shanley Motivated by the inspirational yet thoroughly incarnational rhetoric of Vatican II each of these writers encourages readers to think about the human body as a site perhaps the most important site of interaction between God and human beings Although they represent the body in different ways these late twentieth century Catholic artists share a sense of its inherent value Moreover they use ideas and terminology from the rich tradition of Catholic sacramentality especially as it was articulated in the documents of Vatican II to describe that value In this way they challenge the Church to take its own tradition seriously and to reconsider its relationship to a relatively recent apologetics that has emphasized a narrow view of human reason and a rigid sense of orthodoxy
