Why Beautiful People Have More Daughters Alan S. Miller, Satoshi Kanazawa, 2007 An analysis of the ways in which evolution shapes human behavior and human lives draws on the field of evolutionary psychology to offer revealing glimpses of human nature and to shed new light on why humans do the things that they do Harrison Ford Brad Duke, 2015-06-14 Harrison Ford has been labeled one of the top 100 stars of all time the sexiest man alive and the highest grossing actor in the history of film yet he still has the appeal of an average guy to whom the common man can relate He has worked in more than 40 films as well as in narration roles documentaries award shows and television appearances He has won more than two dozen awards including the Lifetime Achievement Award in 2000 This biographical and filmographic work covers Ford s personal life and career concentrating on his efforts in the film industry It examines in great detail more than 30 films including American Graffiti the several Star Wars outings Blade Runner The Fugitive and Air Force One It discusses the films inceptions writing casting sets schedules stunts filming obstacles openings earnings controversies and reviews Quotes and intimate anecdotes from the casts and crews are an added bonus Numerous photographs a complete film and television listing a bibliography and index complete the work 6 Days/7 Nights Michael Browning, 1998 Media & Minorities Stephanie Greco Larson, 2006 Media Minorities looks at the media s racial tendencies with an eye to identifying the system supportive messages conveyed and offering challenges to them The book covers all major media including television film newspapers radio magazines and the Internet and systematically analyzes their representation of the four largest minority groups in the U S African Americans Native Americans Latinos and Asian Americans Entertainment media are compared and contrasted with news media and special attention is devoted to coverage of social movements for racial justice and politicians of color Culture and Waste Gay Hawkins, Stephen Muecke, 2003 Waste is a key category for understanding cultural value It is not just the bad stuff we dispose of it is material we constantly struggle to redeem Cultures seem to spend as much energy reclassifying negativity as they do on establishing the negative itself The huge tertiary sector devoted to waste management converts garbage into money while ecological movements continue to stress human values and the natural But the problems waste poses are never simply economic or environmental The international contributors to this collection ask us to pause and consider the complex ways in which value is created and destroyed Their diverse approaches of ethics philosophy cultural studies and politics are at the forefront of a new field of ecumanities Harrison Ford Virginia Luzón-Aguado, 2020-05-28 Harrison Ford is known for such iconic roles as Han Solo Indiana Jones and Rick Deckard but his career of 50 years and counting encompasses a plethora of other thought provoking roles His off screen persona has been no less intriguing Covering a wide timespan this book assesses Harrison Ford as star from the difficult Hollywood studio years where he began his blockbusters of the 1980s through to the impact of ageist culture on his artistry of recent years The author argues that Ford has generally been seen as a potent irresistible combination of tradition and modernity He is an actor who both reflects and utilises changing ideas about American masculinity in the context of Hollywood film production particular male types are revealed as much in his trademark trustworthy hero act as in his more fallible less conservative and therefore commercially riskier characters Luzon Aguado explores these particular star identities and every fluctuation in between She gives due attention to his much neglected acting abilities while examining the crucial interplay between star persona and the constraints and conventions of genre Going beyond standard accounts of Ford s production and pinpointing overlooked aspects of his work and the creation of the star through cultural artefacts like magazine interviews and advertising campaigns this book reveals the depth and dimensions of the enduring American screen legend that is Harrison Ford

Latino Images in Film Charles Ramírez Berg, 2009-09-15 The bandido the harlot the male buffoon the female clown the Latin lover and the dark lady these have been the defining and demeaning images of Latinos in U S cinema for more than a century In this book Charles Ram rez Berg develops an innovative theory of stereotyping that accounts for the persistence of such images in U S popular culture He also explores how Latino actors and filmmakers have actively subverted and resisted such stereotyping In the first part of the book Berg sets forth his theory of stereotyping defines the classic stereotypes and investigates how actors such as Ra l Julia Rosie P rez Jos Ferrer Lupe V lez and Gilbert Roland have subverted stereotypical roles In the second part he analyzes Hollywood s portrayal of Latinos in three genres social problem films John Ford westerns and science fiction films In the concluding section Berg looks at Latino self representation and anti stereotyping in Mexican American border documentaries and in the feature films of Robert Rodr guez He also presents an exclusive interview in which Rodr guez talks about his entire career from Bedhead to Spy Kids and comments on the role of a Latino filmmaker in Hollywood and how he tries to subvert the system

Empire Islands Rebecca Weaver-Hightower, 2007 Through a detailed unpacking of the castaway genre s appeal in English literature Empire Islands forwards our understanding of the sociopsychology of British Empire Rebecca Weaver Hightower argues convincingly that by helping generations of readers to make sense of and perhaps feel better about imperial aggression the castaway story in effect enabled the expansion and maintenance of European empire Empire Islands asks why so many colonial authors chose islands as the setting for their stories of imperial adventure and why so many postcolonial writers write back to those island castaway narratives Drawing on insightful readings of works from Thomas More s Utopia to Caribbean novels like George Lamming s Water with Berries from canonical works such as Robinson Crusoe and The Tempest to the lesser known A Narrative of the Life and Astonishing Adventures of John Daniel by Ralph Morris Weaver Hightower examines themes of cannibalism piracy monstrosity imperial aggression and the concept of going native Ending with analysis of contemporary film and the role of the United States in global neoimperialism Weaver Hightower exposes how island narratives continue not only to describe but to justify colonialism Rebecca Weaver Hightower is assistant professor of English and postcolonial studies at the University of North Dakota

White Lens on Brown Skin Matthew B. Locey, 2023-02-21 From the earliest accounts of contact with Europeans Polynesians have been perceived as sensual and sexual beings By the late 1800s publications lectures and stage plays about the Pacific became popular across Europe and often contained exotic and erotic components This book details the fusion of truth and fiction in the representation of Pacific Islanders focusing on the sexualization of Polynesians in American cinema and other forms of mass communications and commercial entertainment With messaging almost subliminal to American audiences the Hollywood media machine produced hundreds of tropical film titles with images of revealing grass skirts scanty sarongs female toplessness and glistening exposed male pectorals This critical filmography demonstrates how the concept of sex sells especially when applied on a large scale shaped American social views on Polynesian people and their culture Chapters document this phenomenon and an annotated filmography of sexualized tropes and several appendices conclude the book including a glossary of Polynesian terms and a film index
