Six Months With An Older Woman:

Six Months with an Older Woman David A. Kaufelt, 1982-11-01 A thirty year old New York bachelor who is dominated by his mother and psychiatrist has a love affair with a woman who is fifteen years his senior Older Women in Europe Isabella Paoletti, 2022-09-30 This book is about older women's strength, freedom, tenacity, determination, resilience, independence, social and political involvement and in particular it is about reimagining ageing. Older women represent the great majority of older people. The book describes instances of age and gender discrimination and examples of social inclusion and protagonism of older women in Europe. It solicits a change in perspective focusing on the necessary societal changes to make space to older people and older women in particular. How is society going to address age and gender discrimination in social and institutional settings? How should work settings change to effectively make space to older workers and in particular older women? How should the pension system change? How could public health systems could provide effective care to older people and be sustainable? This edited collection focuses on older women's rights rather than their needs, adopting a human rights based approach. Preservation of older women's dignity, autonomy and security is its central topic that is ensuring that their rights are recognised. This collection offers insights valuable to a wide array of human rights activists, professionals, policymakers and social scientists and older women themselves.

Mother Shock Andrea J. Buchanan, 2009-03-13 According to Andrea Buchanan, Mother shock is the state in which many new parents exist during those first confusing, chaotic and often comical years of parenting. It is the clash between expectation and reality. It is the twilight zone of 24 hour a day living where life is no longer neatly divided into day and night, the triple impact of hormonal imbalance, sleep deprivation and physical exhaustion. It is the stress of trying to acclimate quickly to the immediacy of mothering, a new conception of oneself, one's role in the family and in the world, a fearful new level of responsibility and a new delegation of domestic duties. In this much needed and delightfully funny collection of essays, Buchanan shares the insight she gains as she moves through the stages of mother shock. From Fear of the Double Stroller and Confessions of a Bottle Feeder to I'm an Idiot and Everything I Needed to Know I Learned in Playgroup, Buchanan details the unimaginably difficult and unbelievably rewarding process of becoming a mother.

Encounters With the Paranormal Kendrick Frazier, 2023-10-17 Do polygraph tests really detect lies? Can memories be implanted? Is subliminal perception a reality? What is the relationship between science and belief? Experts in the fields of physical, biological, science, psychology, philosophy, social science and forensic science bring their perspectives to controversies that affect the way we think and how we perceive reality and the natural world. From science's influence on beauty to antiscience in our universities and from UFO mythologies to near death experiences, this volume spans the gamut of pseudoscience today. Contributors include James Alcock, Susan Blackmore, Alan Cromer, Mandy Fowler, Christopher C. French, Martin Gardner, Thomas Gilovich, Theodore Goertzel, Paul R. Gross, Peter Huston.

Child Abuse, Child Exploitation, and Criminal Justice Responses Daniel G. Murphy, April G. Rasmussen, 2020-01-08 There are few things in our society that provoke such raw emotions as that of child abuse. Most people justifiably so are outraged when they hear of allegations of abuse and their anger is intensified as they learn of what seems to be an inappropriate criminal justice response. However, the debate on child abuse usually happens through visceral emotions rather than facts. Taking emotions out of a child abuse debate is much easier said than done but it is of utmost importance to identify the facts. When the reader has a better understanding of the scope of child abuse they can become more objective but still maintain their passion about ways to protect this vulnerable and targeted population. Child Abuse, Child Exploitation and Criminal Justice Responses is unique in that it offers the reader contributing facts based not only through scholarly research but practical experience working in the field from this wonderful collaboration of criminal investigator and forensic nurse. Thus providing much personal insight and demonstrating how these two areas of expertise can join forces to achieve the objective of working as a team to facilitate safeguarding children. The authors also present the research on this complex yet worthy topic by identifying the unique challenges of investigating these offenses while ultimately bringing the perpetrators to justice and presenting the research from various perspectives of child abuse including both national and international issues and responses. Junior Graphic Mavis Kitcher (Mrs), 2014-10 Good Words and Sunday Magazine Norman Macleod, Donald Macleod, Hartley Aspden, 1878 Stories and Sketches Lafcadio Hearn, 1925 The Practice of Psychotherapy C.G. Jung, 2014-12-18 The Practice of Psychotherapy brings together Jung's essays on general questions of analytic therapy and dream analysis. It also contains his profoundly interesting parallel between the transference phenomena and alchemical processes. The transference is illustrated and interpreted by means of a set of symbolic pictures and the bond between psychotherapist and patient is shown to be a function of the kinship libido. Far from being pathological in its effects, kinship libido has an essential role to play in the work of individuation and in establishing an organic society based on the psychic connection of its members with one another and with their own roots. National Service Corps United States.
