Forever Young Marcel Danesi, Director of the Program in Semiotics and Communication Theory Marcel Danesi, PH.D., 2003-01-01 The excessive worship of adolescence and its social empowerment by adult institutions is the deeply rooted cause of a serious cultural malaise So argues semiotician Marcel Danesi in Forever Young an unforgiving and controversial look at modern culture's incessant drive to create a teen aging of adult life Written for the general reader and based on five years worth of interviews with over 200 adolescents and their parents Danesi begins by asserting that one of the early causes of this crystallization of adolescence as an age category can be traced back to theories of psychology at the turn of the twentieth century Since then the psychological view of adolescence as a stressful period of adjustment has become a self fulfilling prophecy This in tandem with the devaluation of the family by the media and society at large has led to a maturity gap a fissure in family dynamics that is eagerly and ably exploited by the mass media Unlike many academic digressions into the
