

PITTSBURGH SLOPES

Sloping city, proud of its water
As most cities are known to be,
Claims proudly three rivers
Despite many maps suggesting only two
Or even only one and a half
When seen in the long view.

Multi-level city built
On a slant could promote movement
Up and down the angles:

If they could build some sort of zigzag escalators for the Multi-level multi-river city where steel and deer hunters were king.
Rick Beato

illuminates the poetry of the sixth century bishop and poet Venantius Fortunatus Often regarded as an important transitional figure Fortunatus wrote poetry that is seen to bridge the late classical and earlier medieval periods Written in Latin his poems combined the influences of classical Latin poets with a medieval tone giving him a special place in literary history Yet while interest has been growing in the early Merovingian period and while the writing of Fortunatus patron Gregory of Tours has been well studied Fortunatus himself has often been neglected This neglect is remedied by this in depth study which will appeal to scholars of late antique early Christian and medieval Latin poetry Roberts divides Fortunatus poetry into three main groups poetry of praise hagiographical poetry and personal poetry In addition to providing a general survey Roberts discusses in detail many individual poems and proposes a number of theses on the nature function relation to social and linguistic context and survival of Fortunatus poetry as well as the image of the poet created by his work Jacket illustration L Alma Tadema Venantius Fortunatus Reading his Poems to Radegonda VI AD 555 Courtesy of Dordrecht Dordrechts Museum

Wang An-Shih Wang An-Shih, 2015-03-19 A selection of poems by the ancient Chinese poet and statesman Wang An Shih translated by David Hinton Wang An shih 1021 1086 C E was a remarkable figure not only one of the great Sung Dynasty poets but also the most influential and controversial statesman of his time Although Wang had little interest in the grandeur of high office and political power he took the responsibility of serving the people seriously He rose to become prime minister and in this position he instituted a controversial system of radically egalitarian social reforms to improve the lives of China's peasants Once those reforms were securely in place Wang retired to a reclusive life of artistic and spiritual self cultivation It was after his retirement practicing Chan Zen Buddhism and wandering the mountains around his home that Wang An shih wrote the poems that made his reputation Short and plainspoken these late poems contain profound multitudes the passing of time rivers and mountains silence and Buddhist emptiness They won him wide acclaim in China and beyond across the centuries And in Hinton s breathtaking translations Wang feels like a major contemporary poet with deep ecological insight and a questioning spirit Poems James Hyslop,1887 The Poetry of He Zhu (1052-1125) Stuart Sargent,2007-03-31 The Northern Song poet He Zhu is best known for his lyrics ci but also produced shi poetry of subtlety wit and feeling This study examines the latter as a response to the options available to a late eleventh century writer in the pentametrical and heptametrical forms of Ancient Verse Regulated Verse and Quatrains Numerous comparisons are made with Su Shi Huang Tingjian Du Fu and other important writers In a major advance over previous methodologies the author uses a clear system of metrical notation to show how sound patterns reveal the poet s artistic and emotional intentions This innovation and the author s other meticulous explorations of He Zhu s artistry allow us to experience Chinese poetry as never before From the reader s report not just an excellent study of an individual poet but also a model of reading the language of classical Chinese poetry opens up a world of interpretive territory heretofore seldom explored Personal recollections.
