Studies In American Political Development Vol 5 Number 1 1991 Pb 1991:

Sheltered Employment and Disability in the British Welfare State Andy Holroyde, 2025-07-01 This book explores sheltered employment for disabled people in the British welfare state focusing on Remploy as the flagship provider It considers the fundamental areas of understanding Remploy in terms of why it was created how it functioned who it employed and how far it came to dominate the wider field of provision The book further uses sheltered employment as a new lens through which to explore key aspects of the welfare state in the period These include the creation of the post war settlement the extent of political consensus the exclusion of disabled people from welfare and work the role played by gendered thinking in the welfare state s provisions and the relationship between the state and voluntary sectors In so doing it sheds new light on the history of disability employment and welfare in Britain

Conceptualizing the West in International Relations J. O'Hagan, 2002-04-09 West is a concept widely used in international relations but we rarely reflect on what we mean by the term Conceptions of and what the West is vary widely This book examines conceptions of the West drawn from writers from diverse historical and intellectual contexts revealing both interesting parallels and points of divergence It also reflects on implications of these different perceptions of how we understand the role of the West and its interactions with other civilizational identities

FDI, Regionalism, Government Policy and Endogenous Growth Anthony Bende-Nabende, 2018-08-20 Published in 1999 this text investigates whether FDI caused spill over effects which have led to the economic growth of the ASEAN 5 economies and if that it so whether the ASEAN Preferential Trade Agreement APTA had a significant effect in attracting FDI to the region It takes into account the different levels of economic development of the countries under analysis The results from the structural static model suggest that FDI has stimulated economic growth through the human factors followed by technology transfer international trade and learning by doing and that the formation of APTA had a lagged influence on FDI inflows into the advantage of the more developed member countries and the disadvantage of the less developed countries Those from the multiplier dynamic effects analysis demonstrate that whereas the impact is immediate in the more developed politically stable and foreign investment friendly economies there is a time lag in those economies which are less developed and more hostile to FDI The analysis presents an empirical comparison of how the level of economic development affects the interaction of FDI regionalism and economic growth

Globalisation, FDI, Regional Integration and Sustainable Development Anthony Bende-Nabende, 2017-10-05 This title was first published in 2002 Anthony Bende Nabende focuses on the ongoing globalization process which has sparked an unprecedented world wide debate He provides a one stop centre for a balanced coverage of the theoretical empirical and policy issues linking globalization with foreign direct investment regional economic integration and economic growth and sustainable development This stimulating book comprehensively explores the theoretical and empirical literature inter linking the aforementioned factors from the anti globalization activists viewpoint and from the pro globalization proponents perspective It proposes policies that individual countries should pursue based on the recognition that globalization generates both positive and negative effects These comprise policies required to maximise the economic benefits globalization may generate and those that aim to eliminate or at least minimize the negative development oriented effects globalization may engender and hence to propel sustainable development The book will be an essential guide for students academics and those involved in international economics environmental studies international relations and growth and development studies

The Battle for Asia Mark T. Berger, 2004-03 This book is a history of the Asian region from 1945 to the present day which delineates the various ideological battles over Asia's development United States Political Science Documents

, 1993 The Chicano Index, 1992 Resources in Education, 1995 Betting for and Against EMU Leila S Talani, 2017-11-01 This title was first published in 2000 An analysis of the extent to which the outcomes of the process of European monetary integration and particularly of the development of the debate over the establishment of EMU have been influenced by domestic politics and by domestic economic interest groups in Italy and in the United Kingdom From an empirical point of view the work provides an account of the development of Italian and British socio economic interest groups towards the issue of European monetary union from the making of the EMS until the establishment of EMU Reforming the Malawian Public Sector Richard I. C. Tambulasi, 2010 Reforming the Malawian Public Sector argues that the new public management model that Malawi like most African countries adopted under the influence of donor organisations has not led to the intended development The book examines decentralisation performance contracting and public private partnerships as key aspects of the reforms and comes to the conclusion that at best it can be argued that the failures have been due to poor implementation and this could be attributed to the fact that the process was led by donors who lacked the necessary institutional infrastructure The book uses the 2005 6 fertiliser subsidy programme which the government embarked on despite donor resistance that it went against market models but which turned out to be overwhelmingly successful to demonstrate the state's developmental ability and potential This volume is essential reading for academics students and practitioners seeking a deeper understanding of public administration management policy development and governance in Africa and the rest of the developing world The book is dedicated to the memory Guy Mhone a Malawian who was among Africa's leading scholars in public administration and governance His works focused mainly on public sector reforms and development
