Studies In Honor Of Elias Rivers:

An Archaeology of the Political Elías José Palti, 2017-03-14 In the past few decades much political philosophical reflection has been dedicated to the realm of the political Many of the key figures in contemporary political theory Jacques Rancière Alain Badiou Reinhart Koselleck Giorgio Agamben Ernesto Laclau and Slavoj Žižek among others have dedicated themselves to explaining power relations but in many cases they take the concept of the political for granted as if it were a given an eternal essence In An Archaeology of the Political Elías José Palti argues that the dimension of reality known as the political is not a natural transhistorical entity Instead he claims that the horizon of the political arose in the context of a series of changes that affirmed the power of absolute monarchies in seventeenth century Europe and was successively reconfigured from this period up to the present Palti traces this series of redefinitions accompanying alterations in regimes of power thus describing a genealogy of the concept of the political Perhaps most important An Archaeology of the Political brings to theoretical discussions a sound historical perspective illuminating the complex influences of both theology and secularization on our understanding of the political in the contemporary world

Echoes and Inscriptions Barbara Simerka, Christopher B. Weimer, 2000 Essays compare early modern Spanish writers to their contemporaries in other countries and to modern Spanish and Latin American literature

Garcilaso de la Vega and the Material Culture of Renaissance Europe Mary E Barnard, 2014-11-05 Garcilaso de la Vega and the Material Culture of Renaissance Europe examines the role of cultural objects in the lyric poetry of Garcilaso de la Vega the premier poet of sixteenth century Spain As a pioneer of the new poetry of Renaissance Europe aligned with the court empire and modernity Garcilaso was fully attuned to the collection and circulation of luxury artefacts and other worldly goods In his poems a variety of objects including tapestries paintings statues urns mirrors and relics participate in lyric acts of discovery and self revelation reveal memory as contingent and unstable expose knowledge of the self as deceptive and show how history intersects with the ideology of empire Mary E Barnard's study argues persuasively that the material culture of early sixteenth century Europe embedded within Garcilaso's poems offers a key to understanding the interplay between objects and texts that make those works such vibrant inventions

Signs of the Early Modern David Lee Rubin, 1996 Quixotic Desire Ruth Anthony El Saffar, Diana de Armas Wilson, 2019-06-07 In this venturesome collection scholars representing a variety of approaches contribute fifteen essays that shed new light not only on the uses of psychoanalysis for reading Cervantes but also on the relationship between Freud's reading of Cervantes in the summer of 1883 and the very foundation of psychoanalytic paradigms

Imagining Arcadia in Renaissance Romance Marsha S. Collins, 2016-03-22 From Theocritus Idylls to James Cameron's Avatar Arcadia remains an enduring presence in world culture and a persistent source of creative inspiration Why does Arcadia still exercise such a powerful pull on the imagination This book responds by arguing that in sixteenth century Europe a dramatic shift took place in imagining Arcadia The traditional visions of Arcadia collided and fused with romance the new experimental form of prose fiction producing a hybrid dynamic world of change and transformation Emphasizing matters of fictional function and world making over generic classification Imagining Arcadia in Renaissance Romance analyzes the role of romance as a catalyst in remaking Arcadia in five canonical sixteenth century texts Sannazaro's Arcadia Montemayor's La Diana Cervantes' La Galatea Sidney's Arcadia and Lope de Vega's Arcadia Collins analyses of the reimagined Arcadia in these works elucidate the interplay between timely incursions into the fictional world and the timelessness of art highlighting issues of freedom identity formation subjectivity and self fashioning the intersection of public and private activity and the fascination with mortality This book addresses the under representation of Spanish literature in Early Modern literary histories especially regarding the rich Spanish contribution to the pastoral and to idealizing fiction in the West Companion chapters on Cervantes and Sidney add to the growing field of Anglo Spanish comparative literary studies while the book's comparative and transnational approach extends discussion of the pastoral beyond the boundaries of national literary traditions This book's innovative approach to these fictional worlds sheds new light on Arcadia's enduring presence in the collective imagination today

The Politics of Editing Nicholas Spadaccini, Jenaro Taléns, 1992 Editing is by nature an interpretive practice framed by the editor's circumstances mediating between the author's or text's authority the contingencies of numerous institutions of literary and cultural production and a variety of expectations that arise from the specific social and historical conditions of the readers The Discourse of Courtly Love in Seventeenth-century Spanish Theater Robert Elliott Bayliss, 2008 Courtly love and the comedia as discourse The legacy of troubadour self absorption Duty and desire the discourses of courtly love chivalry and honor Discursive interplay the ethics of courtly love decorum and interpretation Furthering the tenso

Cervantes and the Pictorial Imagination Ana María G. Laguna, 2009 As a whole this study demonstrates how in order to examine a mind like Cervantes's we need to approach his work and his world from a perspective as culturally integrative as his own This book includes twenty eight illustrations Jacket Cervantine Journeys Steven D. Hutchinson, 1992 Hutchinson focuses initially on movement as concept and metaphor affirming its centrality in the conceptualization of all discursive activities He draws on an array of authors including Heraclitus Plato Longinus Rabelais Nietzsche Saussure Frances Yates Kristeva Meschonnic and Deleuze to demonstrate the motion of discourse and of those engaged in it He then turns to Cervantes novels to show how metaphors of movement and travel appearing on nearly every page dominate the conceptualization of the soul the self desire love and life processes Viewing travel as a composite of concurrent modes of experience with differing content and rhythms Hutchinson considers the concept of errancy the nature of place and the traveler's shifting relations with it and the values that travel may have as a motion displacement encounter and goal Of key importance are the means of improvisation developed en route His reexamination of Bakhtin's chronotope in light of Cervante's novels reveals the dynamic character of time spaces in which travelers move He shows moreover that unlike typical Renaissance utopias the many worlds of Cervantes novels have the principles of becoming and dissolution inscribed in them Reflecting on the narrative of journeys both as memory and invention Hutchinson concludes with an examination of the relations between travel experience and travel narrative and a discussion of the whereabouts of writers and readers in Cervantes novels The narration of journeys he argues necessitates and encourages improvisatory writing
