architectural design what materials were used what their purpose was and how they infuse buildings with meaning From Spain to China and from the Middle Ages to our own lifetime Islamic architecture and calligraphy are inexorably intertwined Mosques dervish lodges mausolea libraries even baths and market places bear masterpieces of calligraphy that rival the most refined of books and scrolls

An Analysis of Yasser Tabbaa's The Transformation of Islamic Art During the Sunni Revival Bilal Badat,2018-02-21

Tabbaa's Transformation offers an innovative approach to understanding the profound changes undergone by Islamic art and architecture during the often neglected Medieval Islamic period Examining devices such as calligraphy arabesque muqarnas and stonework Tabbaa argues we propagated in a moment of confrontation and facilitated the re emergence of the Sunni Abbasid caliphate in a more orthodox image Tabbaa offers a timely and thought provoking alternative to conventional essentialist positivist and ethno narrative interpretations of Islamic art

Culture and Customs of Iran Elton L. Daniel, Ali Akbar Mahdi,2006-10-30 Iran is often a hotspot in the news and the Muslim state is usually negatively portrayed in the West Culture and Customs of Iran rejects facile stereotyping and presents the rich age old Persian culture that struggles with pressures of the modern world This is the first volume in English to reveal the important sociocultural facets of Iran today for a general audience in an objective fashion Authoritative substantive narrative chapters cover the gamut of topics from religion and religious thought to Iranian cuisine and festivals

Persian Gardens and Pavilions Mohammad Gharipour,2013-04-02 From Timur's tent in Samargand to Shah Abbas's palace in Isfahan and Humayun's tomb in Delhi the pavilion has been an integral part of Persianate gardens since its earliest appearance at the Achaemenid garden in Pasargadae in the sixth century BC Here Mohammad Gharipour places both the garden and the pavilion within their historical literary and artistic contexts emphasizing the importance of the pavilion which has hitherto been overlooked in the study of Iranian historical architecture Starting with an examination of the depictions and representations of gardens in religious texts Gharipour analyses the how the idea of the garden developed from the model of pre Islamic gardens in Achaemenid and Sassanian Persia to its mentions in the Zoroastrian text of Aban Yasht and on to its central role as paradise in the Qur'an Continuing on with an exploration of gardens and pavilions in Persian poetry Gharipour offers in depth analysis of their literal and metaphorical values It is in the poetry of major Persian poets such as Ferdowsi Naser Khosrow Sa'di Rumi and Hafez that Gharipour finds that whilst gardens are praised for their spiritual values they also contain significant symbolic worth in terms of temporal wealth and power Persian Gardens and Pavilions then goes on to examine the garden and the pavilion as reflected in Persian miniature painting sculpture and carpets as well as accounts of travelers to Persia With masters such as Bizhad representing daily life as well as the more mystical prose and poetry in for example Sa'di's Bustan The Orchard and Golestan The Rose Garden the garden and the pavilion can be seen to have crucial semiotic significances and cultural meanings But in addition to this they also point to historical patterns of patronage and ownership which were of central importance in the diplomatic and social life of the royal courts of Persia Gharipour thereby highlights the metaphorical spiritual symbolic and religious aspects of gardens as well as their more materialistic and economic functions This book reaches back through Persia's rich history to explore the material and psychological relationships between human beings pavilions and gardens and will be a valuable resource for Art History Architecture and Iranian Studies

Art and Architectural Traditions of India and Iran Nasir Raza Khan, 2021-11-29 This book presents a comprehensive overview of the historical and cultural linkages between India and Iran in terms of art and architectural traditions and their commonality and diversity It addresses themes such as early connections between Iran India and Central Asia study of the Qutb Complex in Delhi the great immigration of Turks from Asia to Anatolia the collaboration of Indian and Persian painters design ornamentation techniques and regional dynamics women and public spaces in Shahjahanabad and Isfahan the noble architects of emperor Shah Jahan's reign development of Kashmir's Islamic religious architecture in the medieval period role of Nur Jahan and her Persian roots in the evolution of the Mughal Garden synthesis of Indo Iranian architecture and confluence of Indo Persian food culture to showcase the richness of art architecture and sociocultural and political exchanges between the two countries Bringing together a wide array of perspectives it delves into the roots of connection between India and Iran over centuries to understand its influence and impact on the artistic and cultural genealogy and the shared past of two of the oldest civilizations and regional powers of the world With its archival sources this book will be useful to scholars and researchers of medieval history Indian history international relations Central Asian history Islamic studies Iranian history art and architecture heritage studies cultural studies regional studies and South Asian studies as well as those interested in the study of sociocultural and religious exchanges

The Shaping of Persian Art Yuka Kadoi, Iván Szántó, 2014-07-18 While the impact of the Persian style is undeniably reflected in most aspects of the art and architecture of Islamic Central Asia this Perso Central Asian connection was chiefly formed and articulated by the Euro American movement of collecting and interpreting the art and material culture of the Persian Islamic world in modern times This had an enormous impact on the formation of scholarship and connoisseurship in Persian art for instance with an attempt to define the characteristics of how the Islamic art of Iran and Central Asia should be viewed and displayed at museums and how these subjects should be researched in academia This important historical fact which has attracted scholarly interest only in recent years should be treated as a serious subject of research accepting that the abstract image of Persian art was not a pure creation of Persian civilization but that it can be the manifestation of particular historical times and charismatic individuals Attention should therefore be given to various factors that resulted in the shaping of Persian imagery across the globe not only in terms of national ideologies but also within the context of several protagonists such as scholars collectors and dealers as well as of the objects themselves This volume brings together Islamic Iranian and Central Asian art experts from diverse disciplinary and professional backgrounds and intends to offer a novel insight into what is collectively known as Persian art
