Studies in the Neolithic and Urban Revolutions Linda Manzanilla, 1987 Organized by the Institute of Anthropological Research of the National Autonomous University of Mexico Studies in the Neolithic and Urban Revolutions Anthony Manhire, Randi Haaland, 1987 Emergence and Change in Early Urban Societies Linda Manzanilla, 2013-11-11 This book gives an overview of different factors involved in the emergence and change in early urban societies in fourth millennium Mesopotamia and Egypt pre Shang China Classic horizon Central Mexico Oaxaca and the Maya Area and Middle Horizon societies in the Andean Region These factors range from centralized storage and redistributive economies agromanagerial models mercantile network control conflict and conquest conversion of military commanders into administrators political power through monumental construction and elite power through ideological change It discusses specific archaeological data useful in theoretical construction In the Introduction a discussion of different developmental processes of urban societies is made The Eastern Anatolian example emphasizes the role played by interregional exchange networks linking the Mesopotamian plains with the Syro Anatolian regions The emergence of an elite is related with the control of the movement of craft goods and raw materials more than with the appropriation of subsistence goods The Chinese example stresses the importance of conflict provoked by demographic pressures on resources The Mesoamerican cases relate to vast urban developments and manufacturing centers ideological importance of monumental planning and changing behavior of elites The Andean cases are related either to the transformation of theocratic leadership into military administrators or to the agricultural intensification model Hunting and Fishing in the Neolithic and Eneolithic Selena Vitezovic, Christoforos Arampatzis, 2024-05-02 This volume contains 13 papers on hunting and fishing techniques weapons and prey in the area from Anatolia to the Gibraltar region Papers include specific case studies as well as syntheses of wider data sets and provide the latest methodological and theoretical perspectives on the role of hunting and fishing in early agricultural societies Art, Ideology, and the City of Teotihuacan Janet Catherine Berlo, 1992 The Emergence of Civilisation Charles Keith Maisels, 2003-12-16 The Emergence of Civilisation is a major contribution to our understanding of the development of urban culture and social stratification in the Near Eastern region Charles Maisels argues that our present assumptions about state formation based on nineteenth century speculations are wrong His investigation illuminates the changes in scale complexity and hierarchy which accompany the development of civilisation The book draws conclusions about the dynamics of social change and the processes of social evolution in general applying those concepts to the rise of Greece and Rome and to the collapse of the classical Mediterranean world The Archaeology of Mesopotamia Roger Matthews, 2013-01-11 The only critical guide to the theory and method of Mesopotamian archaeology this innovative volume evaluates the theories methods approaches and history of Mesopotamian archaeology from its origins in the nineteenth century up to the present day Ancient Mesopotamia modern Iraq was the original site of many of the major developments in human history such as farming the rise of urban literate societies and the first great empires of Akkad Babylonia and Assyria Dr Matthews places the discipline within its historical and social context and explains how archaeologists conduct their research through excavation survey and other methods In four fundamental chapters he uses illustrated case studies to show how archaeologists have approached central themes such as the shift from hunting to farming complex societies empires and imperialism everyday life This will be both an ideal introductory work and useful as background reading on a wide range of courses Gender and Power in Prehispanic Mesoamerica Rosemary A.

Joyce,2009-06-23 Gender was a fluid potential not a fixed category before the Spaniards came to Mesoamerica Childhood training and ritual shaped but did not set adult gender which could encompass third genders and alternative sexualities as well as male and female At the height of the Classic period Maya rulers presented themselves as embodying the entire range of gender possibilities from male through female by wearing blended costumes and playing male and female roles in state ceremonies This landmark book offers the first comprehensive description and analysis of gender and power relations in prehispanic Mesoamerica from the Formative Period Olmec world ca 1500 500 BC through the Postclassic Maya and Aztec societies of the sixteenth century AD Using approaches from contemporary gender theory Rosemary Joyce explores how Mesoamericans created human images to represent idealized notions of what it meant to be male and female and to depict proper gender roles She then juxtaposes these images with archaeological evidence from burials house sites and body ornaments which reveals that real gender roles were more fluid and variable than the stereotyped images suggest Cities and the Shaping of Memory in the Ancient Near East Ömür Harmanşah,2013-03-18 This book investigates the founding and building of cities in the ancient Near East The creation of new cities was imagined as an ideological project or a divine intervention in the political narratives and mythologies of Near Eastern cultures often masking the complex processes behind the social production of urban space During the Early Iron Age c 1200 850 BCE Assyrian and Syro Hittite rulers developed a highly performative official discourse that revolved around constructing cities cultivating landscapes building watercourses erecting monuments and initiating public festivals This volume combs through archaeological epigraphic visual architectural and environmental evidence to tell the story of a region from the perspective of its spatial practices landscape history and architectural technologies It argues that the cultural processes of the making of urban spaces shape collective memory and identity as well as sites of political performance and state spectacle General Technical Report SE ,1991
