Studies In Three Literatures:

Studies in the Tanhuma-Yelammedenu Literature Ronit Nikolsky, Arnon Atzmon, 2021-11-15 Tanhuma Yelammedenu Literature enables a rare and unique look into the Jewish society of late antiquity and the early Byzantine period especially the interaction between the beit midrash and the synagogue cultures This little studied corpus is the focus of the present volume in which various authors study historical philological cultural or linguistic aspects of this literature The result is a body of work dedicated to this important corpus and is a first step into giving it its proper place in Jewish Studies Studies in Three Literatures, English, Latin, Greek Maurice Roy Ridley, 1978-01-01 The primitive and literary epic genres the lyric and the drama are compared and placed against the categories of classic and romantic University of Michigan Official Publication University of Michigan, 1993 Each number is the catalogue of a specific school or college of the University

The Routledge Handbook of Translation and Young Audiences Michał Borodo, Jorge Díaz-Cintas, 2025-01-31 The Routledge Handbook of Translation and Young Audiences offers a comprehensive overview of translation in the context of young audiences The handbook synthesises research on translation of children s and young adult literature audiovisual translation the translation of comics and picture books empirical research methods and translation performed by fan communities in the digital world Adopting a forward looking approach it is organised around these five key themes which taken together propose a new way of looking at interrelated phenomena which have never been brought together before to map this emerging area of study Featuring 35 contributions from leading and emerging scholars the volume showcases a range of perspectives which focus on translation and cultural practices around children and young adults not only as readers viewers and consumers but also as prosumers and collaborative creators of content Providing a multi layered perspective on the study of translation and young audiences this handbook will be a valuable resource for students and scholars in translation studies particularly those interested in audiovisual translation media translation multimodal texts and children s literature The Strad , 1893 The Bloomsbury Handbook of Modern Chinese Literature in Translation Cosima Bruno, Lucas Klein, Chris Song, 2023-10-19 Offering the first systematic overview of modern and contemporary Chinese literature from a translation studies perspective this handbook provides students researchers and teachers with a context in which to read and appreciate the effects of linguistic and cultural transfer in Chinese literary works Translation matters It always has of course but more so when we want to reap the benefits of intercultural communication In many universities Chinese literature in English translation is taught as if it had been written in English As a result students submit what they read to their own cultural expectations they do not read in translation and do not attend to the protocols of knowing engagements and contestations that bind literature and society to each other The Bloomsbury Handbook of Modern Chinese Literature in Translation squarely addresses this pedagogical lack Organised in a tripartite structure around considerations of textual social and large scale spatial and historical circumstances its thirty plus essays each deal with a theme of translation studies as emerged from the translation of one or more Chinese literary works In doing so it offers new tools for reading and appreciating modern and contemporary Chinese literature in the global context of its translation offering in depth studies about eminent Chinese authors and their literary masterpieces in translation The first of its kind this book is essential reading for anyone studying or researching Chinese literature in translation War and Literature Laura Ashe,Ian Patterson,2014 Considerations of writing about war in war because of war and against war in a wide range of texts from the middle ages onwards War was the first subject of literature at times war has been its only subject In this volume the contributors reflect on the uneasy yet symbiotic relations of war and writing from medieval to modern literature War writing emerges in multiple forms celebratory and critical awed and disgusted the rhetoric of inexpressibility fights its own battle with the urgent necessity of representation record and recognition This is shown to be true even to the present day whether mimetic or metaphorical literature that concerns itself overtly or covertly with the real pressures of war continues to speak to issues of pressing significance and to provide some clues to the intricate entwinement of war with contemporary life Particular topics addressed include writings of and about the Crusades and battles during the Hundred Years War Shakespeare's Casus Belli Auden's Journal of an Airman and War and Peace Ian Patterson is a poet critic and translator He teaches English at Queens College Cambridge Laura Ashe is Associate Professor of English and a Tutorial Fellow of Worcester College Oxford Contributors Joanna Bellis Catherine A M Clarke Mary A Favret Rachel Galvin James Purdon Mark Rawlinson Susanna A Throop Katie L Walter Carol Watts Tom F Wright Andrew Zurcher Handbook of Management Accounting Research Christopher S. Chapman,Anthony G. Hopwood,Michael D. Shields,2011-09-14 Volume two of the Handbooks of Management Accounting Research consists of two groups of chapters The first draw together research that has focussed on particular management accounting practices The second set synthesise contributions to the literature that have been focussed within particular organisational contexts Volume two concludes with a review of research on how management accounting practice and research varies around the world Special pricing available if purchased as a set with Volume 1 Documents the scholarly management accounting literature Publishing both in print and online through Science Direct International in scope Beginning Ethnic American Literatures Helena Grice,2001-06-23 This text is designed to introduce students not only to ethnic American writers but also to the cultural contexts and literary traditions in which their work is situated A Companion to Latin Studies John Edwin Sandys,1921
