Study Of Christopher Brennans The Forest Of Night:

The Higher Self in Christopher Brennan's Poems Katherine Barnes,2006-09-01 In 1914 a remarkable poetic work appeared in Sydney Australia written in the form of a Symbolist livre compos by one of Stephane Mallarm s earliest admirers Christopher Brennan The book simply titled Poems shows that Brennan was exploring pressing religious issues of his time He melded Western esoteric currents such as alchemy and Rosicrucianism with Romantic literature and philosophy and French Symbolist theory This book argues that the focus of Poems is the notion of a higher self It is the first major study of Brennan s work in this broad religious philosophical and literary context Its argument is supported by evidence from Brennan s own library and the holdings of the Sydney library in which he worked A Study of Christopher Brennan's The Forest of Night Alan Rowland Chisholm,1970

The Fin de Siècle Imagination in Australia, 1890-1914 Mark Hearn,2022-07-14 This book explores the fin de si cle an era of powerful global movements and turbulent transition in Australia and beyond through a series of biographical microhistories From the first wave feminist Rose Summerfield and the working class radical John Dwyer to the indigenous rights advocate David Unaipon and the poet Christopher Brennan Hearn traces the transnational identities philosophies ideas and cultures that characterised this era Examining the struggles and aspirations of fin de si cle lives respect for the rights of women and indigenous peoples the injustices and hardship inflicted on working men and women and the ways in which they imagined a better world this book examines the transformation and renewal brought about by fin de si cle ideas It examines the distinctive characteristics of this great acceleration of economic technological and cultural forces that swept the globe at the turn of the 19th century both within an Australian context and on the world stage Asserting that the fin de si cle was significant for the making of modern Australia and demonstrating the impact Australian fin de si cle lives had on the transnational and global movements of the era Mark Hearn traces the turbulent nature of the fin de si cle imagination in Australia and its response to these dynamic forces

Guide to the Collections National Library of Australia,1910 The Symbolist Movement in the Literature of European Languages Anna Balakian,1984-01-01 Edited by Anna Balakian this volume marks the first attempt to discuss Symbolism in a full range of the literatures written in the European languages The scope of these analyses which explore Latin America Scandinavia Russia Poland Hungary Serbia Czechoslovakia and Bulgaria as well as West European literatures continues to make the volume a valuable reference today As Ren Wellek suggests in his historiographic contribution the fifty one contributors not only make us think afresh about individual authors who are giants but also draw us to reassess schools and movements in their local as well as international contexts Reviewers comment that this copious and intelligently structured anthology divided into eight parts traces the conceptual bases and emergence of an international Symbolist movement showing the spread of Symbolism to other national literatures from French sources as well as the symbiotic transformations of Symbolism through appropriation and amalgamation with local literary trends Several chapters deal with the relationships between literature and the other arts pointing to Symbolism at work in painting music and theatre Other chapters on the psychological aspects of the Symbolist method connect in interesting ways to a vision of metaphor and myth as virtually musical notation and an experimental emphasis on the play afforded by gaps between words The volume is a major contribution to the most significant exponents and essential themes of Symbolism The theoretical historical and typological sections of the volume help explain why the impact of this important movement of the fin de siècle is still felt today

Poetic Principles and Practice Lloyd Austin, 1987 The central theme here is the constant confrontation of theory and practice in the work of Baudelaire Mallarmé and Valéry
