Hasan, The American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences AJISS established in 1984 is a quarterly double blind peer reviewed and interdisciplinary journal published by the International Institute of Islamic Thought IIIT and distributed worldwide The journal showcases a wide variety of scholarly research on all facets of Islam and the Muslim world including subjects such as anthropology history philosophy and metaphysics politics psychology religious law and traditional Islam Anthropology of the Middle East and North Africa Sherine Hafez, Susan Slyomovics, 2013-06-05 This volume combines ethnographic accounts of fieldwork with overviews of recent anthropological literature about the region on topics such as Islam gender youth and new media It addresses contemporary debates about modernity nation building and the link between the ideology of power and the production of knowledge Contributors include established and emerging scholars known for the depth and quality of their ethnographic writing and for their interventions in current theory Islamic Studies Presented to Charles J. Adams Wael B. Hallaq, Donald P. Little, 2023-11-27 This tribute to Charles J Adams from colleagues and students includes essays on numerous aspects of Islamic civilization beginning with early Islam down to the modern period The Qur n receives the attention of five authors Andrew Rippin focuses on references to the pre Islamic Han fs while Issa Boullata traces poetic citation in Qur nic exegesis Sulami s commentary is discussed by Gerhard Bwering and Hallaq draws attention to the unique place the Qur n occupied in Sh tib s legal theory Finally W C Smith looks at the Qur n from a comparativist perspective Ulrich Haarmann and Donald P Little deal respectively with the attitudes of medieval Egyptians towards the Pyramids and the nature of S f institutions under the Mamluks Mehdi Mohaghegh Hasan Murad and Paul Walker treat philosophical and theological issues while Eric Ormsby analyzes the structure of experience in Ghazali Sajida Alvi explores the religious writings of the eighteenth century Indian scholar Pan pat and ner Turgay examines Circassian immigration to the Ottoman Empire in the nineteenth century Orthodoxy and aberrancy in the Ithna Ashar tradition is the subject of Savory s article and the notion of literature in Arab and Islamic culture is treated by Wickens Finally Bernard Weiss compares Islamic and Western conceptions of law The Politics of Knowledge David L. Szanton, 2004-09-20 The usefulness and political implications of Area Studies programs are currently debated within the Academy and the Administration where they are often treated as one homogenous and stagnant domain of scholarship The essays in this volume document the various fields distinctive character and internal heterogeneity as well as the dynamism resulting from their evolving engagements with funders US and international politics and domestic constituencies The authors were chosen for their long standing interest in the intellectual evolution of their fields They describe the origins and histories of US based Area Studies programs

highlighting their complex generative and sometimes contentious relationships with the social science and humanities disciplines and their diverse contributions to the regions of the world with which they are concerned Cultural Anthropology of the Middle East, 1992 During the last two decades the number of anthropological studies on the Middle East has increased exponentially This partially annotated bibliography offers a comprehensive survey of studies written in English French and German and covers the period from 1965 to 1987 Contending Visions of the Middle East Zachary Lockman, 2004-08-16 An accessible and broad ranging survey of Western perceptions of Islam and the Middle East

Overlapping Regional Orders in the Middle East and North Africa Jordi Quero, 2023-11-24 Focused on a set of overlapping international orders of regional scope present in the Middle East and North Africa this book argues that rules and primary institutions have sanctioned the foreign behavior of the sub system s international actors since 1945 The author avoids recent IR trends focused on narrow case studies instead providing a comprehensive overview of the MENA s regional politics The normative content and evolution of multiple international orders are examined constituting the intra Arab order the Arab Israeli order and the Arab Iranian order as well as the expression of the global order in regional interactions Drawing on Area Studies and English School and constructivist IR theories the author argues that a plurality of overlapping regional orders have coexisted since 1945 not just one as is commonly suggested in the literature Each of these orders is integrated by different participants and has developed its own differentiated norms and institutions setting parameters on legitimate behavior This analytical proposal helps make sense of foreign relations otherwise labeled as incoherent The book has wide appeal accessible both to students wishing to learn about the politics history and sociology of the Middle East as well as to specialists seeking original research on the functioning of the MENA s regional orders Egypt Under the Khedives, 1805-1879 F. Robert Hunter, 1999 Robert Hunter s Egypt Under the Khedives brought back into print in this paperback edition was a pioneering work when first published in the 1980s as Western scholars began to comb Egypt s national archives for an understanding of the social and economic history of the country It is now recognized as one of the fundamental books on nineteenth century Egypt it is so archivally based and empirically solid that it forms the starting point for all research Hunter used land and pension records in Dar al Mahfuzat in addition to published archival collections like those of Amin Sami Pasha to enlarge our understanding of the social dimensions of the politics of the period A secondary and very important contribution of the work is its explanation of the way in which collaborating bureaucrat landowners aided in the country s subordination to European political and economic dominance in the reign of Ismail The big chapter on the unraveling of khedivial absolutism is a splendid piece of storytelling as it explores the wild fluctuations in Egypt s finances Ismail s desperate gambits to ward off European administrative scrutiny and the defection of key officials in his regime to the European side Egypt Under the Khedives appears on Oxford University s Best Thirty list of must read books in the field of Middle East history
