Character Studies in the Gospel of Matthew Matthew Ryan Hauge, Craig Evan Anderson, 2024-02-08 This volume examines a multitude of characters in Matthew's gospel and provides an in-depth look at the different approaches currently employed by scholars working with literary and reader-oriented methods. Beginning with an introduction on the properties of character and the several aspects involved in the creation of person, the contributors provide a close reading of numerous characters and character types in the Gospel of Matthew. Including Mary, King Herod, John the Baptist, Jesus the Preacher, Jesus the Teacher, God the Father, the Roman Centurion, Peter, Women, Gentiles, Scribes, and Pharisees, and Romans. Such close studies aid the understanding of different issues in Matthean characterization while also charting the development of hermeneutical vistas that have developed in contemporary scholarship, resulting in a collection of exegetical character studies that are self-consciously working from a literary narrative critical reader-oriented or related methodology.

Theodicy and Spirituality in the Fourth Gospel Daniel DeForest, London, 2020-06-15 Daniel DeForest, London, argues that the Fourth Gospel offers a potentially transformative response to the question of suffering and the human compulsion to blame. Based on his reading of John 9, the man born blind, London argues that the Gospel does not offer a theodicy but rather a theodical spirituality, an experience of praying the question of suffering and remaining open to a divine response. London shows how the Johannine Jesus's response poses three sets of symbols in dichotomy: day/night, vision/blindness, sheep/wolf, each subverted by another core symbol: light/judge, shepherd. By interpreting these symbols in light of mimetic theory, he argues that Jesus's response reveals the scapegoat mechanism in which an innocent victim is blamed by violent victimizers. However, rather than blaming the victimizers, Jesus continues to engage with the characters who appear to be villains. The light of the world transforms night and day into one continuous day; the Good Shepherd welcomes sheep and wolf into his beloved flock. In this way, readers are invited to bring to the Johannine Jesus their own violence, resentment, and wolfish rage regarding the question of suffering and to experience the theodical spirituality of the Fourth Gospel.

The Conceptual Worlds of the Fourth Gospel Charles B. Puskas, C. Michael Robbins, 2021-01-08 Over under and through John s story of Jesus are unforgettable ideas and concepts profoundly simple and simply profound for the author s own audience and beyond These ideas did not originate in a vacuum They have recurred and been repeated before and after the writing of the Fourth Gospel For this reason we will examine the meaning of its words and themes in the context of its Jewish Greco Roman milieu Much of our intertextual understanding will be derived from alleged parallels that involve comparisons of similar vocabulary and phrases as well as parallel concepts and images from the Old Testament the Dead Sea Scrolls Philo and other relevant writings Such parallels will help to determine the meaning of a word or expression the translation of a particular language determining any direct influences upon the Fourth Gospel parallel traditions or the influence of its ideas as a creative and inspiring work of later antiquity
