This book presents extensive new research findings on and new thinking about Southeast Asia in this interesting richly diverse but much understudied period. It examines the wide and well developed trading networks, explores the different kinds of regimes and the nature of power and security, considers urban growth, international relations and the beginnings of European involvement with the region and discusses religious factors in particular the spread and impact of Christianity. One key theme of the book is the consideration of how well developed Southeast Asia was before the onset of European involvement and how during the peak of the commercial boom in the 1500s and 1600s many polities in Southeast Asia were not far behind Europe in terms of socio economic progress and attainments. The Historical Construction of Southeast Asian Studies Park Seung Woo, Victor T

King, 2013-06-17. At a time when Southeast Asian Studies is declining in North America and Europe, this book serves to remind us of the fresh constructive and encouraging view of the field from Asia. On behalf of Taiwan's Southeast Asian research community, I sincerely congratulate Professors Park and King for making such a great and timely contribution to the making of Southeast Asian Studies in Asia. Hsin Huang Michael Hsiao, Director of Institute of Sociology Academia Sinica and former President of Taiwan Association of Southeast Asian Studies. The Historical Construction of Southeast Asian Studies: Korea and Beyond is an important and long overdue step in the task of bringing Southeast Asian Studies to where it rightfully belongs, the Asian region. At the same time, it avoids being narrowly regionalistic and instead views Southeast Asia as an open system that transcends national units or fixed territorial categories and welcomes the contributions of both Asian and non-Asian scholars in crafting a fresh post colonial approach to the study of the region's societies and peoples. Eduardo Climaco Tadem, Professor of Asian Studies, University of the Philippines Diliman. An insightful and systemic analysis of the intriguing trajectories, evolving themes and multi lingual scholarship of Southeast Asian Studies in Asia and beyond, this book serves as an important foundation in setting future research agendas as well as for closer global collaborations in knowledge production in Asian Studies. Liu Hong Tan Kah Kee, Professor and Chair, School of Humanities and Social Sciences, Nanyang Technological University, Singapore.
