compelling narrative of the moral dilemmas in the lives of Shi Cuntong and other early leaders Using sources previously closed to scholars including recently discovered documents in the archives of the First United Front Yeh shows the urban Communist movement as an intellectual revolution in social consciousness The Maoist legacy has often been associated with the excesses of the Cultural Revolution Yeh s historical reconstruction of a pre Mao non organizational dimension of Chinese socialism is thus of vital interest to those seeking to redefine the place of the Communist Party in a post Mao political order Revealing information that has been suppressed in the Chinese Communist Party s official history Wen hsin Yeh presents an insightful new view of the Party s origins She moves away from an emphasis on Mao and traces Chinese Communism s roots to the count
