House Churches in Post-Communist Europe Randy Hacker,2023-02-10 This is an exploration of house churches especially in Poland The book begins with a review of literature about the global house church movement and continues with an article on the early Christian transition from house churches to purpose built buildings for churches Next is an article regarding the concept of sacred space in relation to house churches The first half concludes with a chapter on methodology of research for a qualitative interview approach to studying house churches The thesis then presents a theological method for using the qualitative interviews to develop ecclesiology Sixteen interviews from thirteen house churches are presented The thesis continues the theological method by attempting to answer the question why is it going on and presents a thematic analysis from the qualitative interviews that includes input from sociological research done in Poland The thesis concludes by using scriptural and academic sources in conversation with house church interviews from the interviews and global house church literature to present four primary conclusions in a practical prophetic ecclesiology Seeing Religion Roman

Williams,2015-05-13 The potential of visual research methods in the sociology of religion is vast but largely untapped This comes as a surprise however given the visual symbolic and material nature of religion and spirituality Evidence of religious faith and practice is materially present in everything from clothing and jewelry to artifacts found in people s homes and workplaces Not only is religion s symbolic and material presence palpable throughout society it also informs attitudes beliefs and behaviors of countless people worldwide Words and numbers approaches to social research however sometimes miss important dimensions of religion and spirituality in the contemporary world Seeing Religion is an invitation to a visual sociology of religion Contributors draw from their current research to discuss the application of visual methods to the study of religion and spirituality Each chapter stimulates the sociological imagination through examples of research techniques analytical approaches and methodological concerns Life-study of Revelation: Messages 1-16 Witness Lee,1999
