education and very early child care increase parents and professionals face many difficult questions What are the effects of early education on children Are parents fulfilling their roles What should teachers roles be Seldom asked are more basic questions What are the fundamental needs of young children Or parents Or professionals How can these differing sets of needs be met Margaret Henry proposes three dimensions of caregiving behaviour through which parents and professionals not only help young children to develop but can also help one another s development Evidence of positive change comes both from her own research in family day care and from the work of her students practicing teachers and child care personnel Their examples involve often hard to reach parents those who are tired employed alienated bossy and culturally and
