It is a place where history has been made for thousands of years and where it is still being made today. It is not a city frozen in time, preserved in its ancient medieval pomp, but a place that has been at or near the centre of national life for a thousand years and at the forefront of international political, cultural and economic history for each of the past five centuries. Here Stephen Inwood, bestselling author of A History of London and a lifelong student of the city's rich and vibrant history, offers an explorer's guide to London's past. As you walk the streets of the capital, whether you live in the city or are just visiting it, Inwood will show you London's history all around you: stretches of Roman wall, medieval churches and Tudor houses that survived the Great Fire, monastic buildings that survived the Reformation, street markets first established centuries ago that survive today, Georgian streets and squares that were spared the wreckers' ball, Wren churches, Victorian terraces and Inns of Court that survived the Blitz. He takes you to the London of Chaucer and Shakespeare, Samuel Pepys and Johnson, Dickens and Darwin, T. S. Eliot and George Orwell. It is the perfect book to have in your pocket or your bag as you go about your business in this most fascinating of cities. Superscale London Map Collins, 1999 A-Z London Geographers' A-Z Map Company, 2002 London cabbies train for years and the London A-Z is their bible.
