Stone Fidelity Jessica Barker, 2020

Medieval tombs often depict husband and wife lying side by side demonstrating as in the words of Philip Larkin's poem An Arundel Tomb their stone fidelity. This is the first book to address the phenomenon of the double tomb drawing the rich history of tomb sculpture into dialogue with discourses of power marriage gender and emotion and placing them in the context of ecclesiastical material culture of the time more broadly It offers new interpretations of some of the most famous medieval monuments such as those found in Westminster Abbey and Canterbury Cathedral as well as drawing attention to a host of lesser known memorials from throughout Europe In turn these monuments provide a vantage point from which to reconsider the culture of medieval marriage from wedding rings and dresses to the sacramental symbolism of matrimony and embodied ritual practices Whilst it is tempting to read these sculptures as straightforward expressions of romantic feeling the author argues that a closer look reveals the artifice behind the emotion the artistic religious political and legal agenda underlying the rhetoric of married love
