Surface To Air Christianity:

Christians and Nonviolence in the Nuclear Age Gerard Vanderhaar, 2013-08-28 Christians and Nonviolence in the Nuclear Age presents a constructive personal response that individuals can make to the challenge posed by nuclear weapons. It outlines a positive nonviolent alternative to war. This alternative can be practiced in one's own personal life and extended into the arena of international relations. The book assesses the terrible realities of the Nuclear Age and sophisticated weapons systems in light of the biblical teachings about idolatry. Then it presents the life of Jesus as a model upon which women and men of good will can pattern a lifestyle of nonviolence. Christians and Nonviolence in the Nuclear Age proposes a new vision of self, country and the world that measures up to the demands of the times. In light of that vision, the book suggests specific actions individuals and groups can take to change the course of our world from self-destruction to mutual understanding and cooperation. The Freethinking Christians' Magazine, 1812 Christianity from the Ground Up

Ian Dodkins, 2024-01-19 How did all species fit on the ark? Where is Jesus now? What is the purpose of heaven? These are questions many Christians have asked themselves, but they have also led many people to become atheists. This book doesn't answer them; it shows how these questions are missing the point and explains how core Christian values arise naturally from the human experience and why these values are so important to live a life of contentment despite all trials. This book combines knowledge in science, not pseudo-science, with understanding in wisdom texts including the Bible, Stoicism, and Taoism. It explains why forgiveness, optimism, gratitude, humility, and love are so important in our lives. Along the way, readers will learn about relativity, the size of the universe, the purpose of life, how to feel content, mental strength, and how Job expresses sentiments similar to Taoism. The book talks about Christian history, the effect of fasting on the body and mind, and stories such as the Frog in the Well. This book isn't trying to convince the reader; it's a journey through life, science, and religion that will certainly teach something new. Surface to Air Christianity, Ren Vandesteeg, Carol Vandesteeg, 2006-01-01 Surface to Air Christianity is a must-read for Christians and non-Christians. It teaches people how to consistently conquer evil. The authors apply proven military strategies and principles of war to the battle between good and evil. The Christian Advocate, 1927 Polytheism and monotheism.-pt. II. Christianity Sabine Baring-Gould, 1878

Heathenism and Mosaism.- pt. 2. Darash, 2023-02-09 We all make decisions every day. We choose what we wear to work and what to make for dinner, along with thousands of other minor choices each day. Most decisions don't even register in our minds as we live our lives. Decisions can be small, but other decisions will change the course of our life. Each day we decide to accept or reject the love of God. We choose to sin. We choose to avoid sin. Our choices directly affect our children and families, friends, coworkers, and neighbors Being a Christian is a choice We can choose to accept the blessings from our creator or we can ignore them and blindly accept what this world offers us Our government is removing God from our society Our schools teach our children God is a fairytale The literal truth of the Bible is being attacked by modern day science in an effort to destroy the greatest love story ever told As God is being systematically removed from our communities our country is falling apart in every way If you are not yet a Christian this book can help you logically and scientifically realize there is no possibility of our existence without a loving God If you are already a Christian you will be challenged on the depth of your faith in an effort to help you trust every word in the Bible is true and accurate Be ready for controversial issues to be addressed with biblical principles and for the discovery of how deep your faith can take you in realizing God's amazing and perfect love for us
