Teaching Dance Elizabeth Goodling, 2019-02-25 Many of us are drawn to dance because we love the act of dancing Teaching was something that came later It is necessary to teach dance if we want to continue dancing and make a living doing it Whether you are facing a class of students for the first time or are an experienced teacher whether you teach children or adults whether in a recreational setting or college you will find this book an essential source of information Supported by illustrations numerous examples sample lesson plans activity suggestions and discussion questions Teaching Dance The Spectrum of Styles is designed for use as a course textbook for student teachers and as a resource for the professional teacher It includes practical tips and application suggestions with additional material downloadable from the website Supported by illustrations numerous examples sample lesson plans activity suggestions and discussion questions Teaching Dance The Spectrum of Styles is designed for use as a course textbook for student teachers and as a resource for the professional teacher It includes practical tips and application suggestions with additional material downloadable from the website This groundbreaking work brings the Spectrum of Teaching Styles originally developed by Muska Mosston and Sara Ashworth to the art and science of dance The Spectrum will help dance teachers address many issues including the following For the beginning teacher Did I meet my objectives How can I judge how well I did For the advanced teacher How can I encourage initiative and help students become more responsible and self motivated How can I continue to grow and improve as a teacher For the college or university teacher How do I help my colleagues in other disciplines and my administration understand dance as an academic discipline How can I engage students cognitively and encourage critical thinking For teachers of children How can I focus on the creative possibilities of movement for each child and harness their love of discovery For teachers in private studios The students in my class are at several different levels How can I coax the beginners and still challenge the more advanced students How can I teach so that I reach every student keep students coming back for more classes and thus keep enrollment and my business up When teaching large classes How can I provide individualized feedback for every student in the class and still keep the class moving

Dancing with Difference Linda Ashley, 2012-12-09 As the global vicissitudes of migration unfold so does ethnic difference in the classroom and this book offers a timely examination of teaching about culturally different dances At a time when the world of dance is on the one hand seemingly becoming more like fusion cookery there is another faction promoting isolation and preservation of tradition How if at all may these two worlds co exist in dance education Understanding teaching about culturally different dances from postmodern postcolonial pluralist and critical perspectives creates an urgent demand to develop relevant pedagogy in dance education What is required to support dance educators into the next phase of dance education so as to avoid teaching from within a Eurocentric creative dance model alone An ethnographic investigation with teachers in New Zealand lays a foundation for the examination of issues challenges and opportunities associated with teaching about culturally different dances Concerns and issues surrounding notions of tradition innovation appropriation interculturalism social justice and critical pedagogy emerge Engaging with both practice and theory is a priority in this book and a nexus model in which the theoretical fields of critical cultural theory semiotics ethnography and anthropology can be activated as teachers teach is proposed as informing approaches to teaching about culturally different dances Even though some practical suggestions for teaching are presented the main concern is to motivate further thinking and research into teaching about dancing with cultural difference Cover photo Photo credit lester de Vere photography ltd Dancing with Difference 2009 Directed and co choreographed for AUT University Bachelor of Dance by Linda Ashley with Jonelle Kawana Yoon jee Lee Keneti Muaiava Aya Nakamura Siauala Nili Valance Smith Sakura Stirling and dancers Won first prize in the 2009 Viva Eclectika Aotearoa s Intercultural Dance and Music Biennial Challenge run by NZ Asia Association Inc NZ and the NZ Diversity Action Programme
