Resources in Education ,2000-04 Home-work Cynthia Conchita Sugars,2004-06-22 Canadian literature and specifically the teaching of Canadian literature has emerged from a colonial duty to a nationalist enterprise and into the current territory of postcolonialism From practical discussions related to specific texts to more theoretical discussions about pedagogical practice regarding issues of nationalism and identity Home Work constitutes a major investigation and reassessment of the influence of postcolonial theory on Canadian literary pedagogy from some of the top scholars in the field

Teaching Tolerance Magazine ,1999 El-Hi Textbooks & Serials in Print, 2003 ,2003 Under Fire Elizabeth Goodenough,Andrea Immel,2008 An eclectic multidisciplinary collection that explores the representation of war and its aftereffects in children s books and documentary film Brings together internationally known contributors to examine the ongoing influence of violence and war on children s literature by studying the childhood experiences of authors writing for children the children represented in war stories and the experiences of children who make up the stories readership From publisher description Melancholia and Maturation Eric L. Tribunella,2010-01-15 Coming of age in children s fiction often means achieving maturity through the experience of trauma In classics ranging from Old Yeller to The Outsiders a narrative of psychological pain defies expectations of childhood as a time of innocence and play In this provocative new book Eric L Tribunella explores why trauma especially the loss of a loved object occurs in some of the most popular and critically acclaimed twentieth century American fiction for children Tribunella draws on queer theory and feminist revisions of Freud s notion of melancholia which is described as a fundamental response to loss arguing that the low grade symptoms of melancholia are in fact what characterize the mature sober and responsible American adult Melancholia and Maturation looks at how this effect is achieved in a society that purports to protect youngsters from every possible source of danger thus requiring melancholia to be induced artificially Each of the book s five chapters focuses on a different kind of lost object sacrificed so as to propel the child toward a distinctively gendered sexual ethical and national adulthood from same sex friends to the companionship of boy and his dog stories from the lost ideals of historical fiction about the American Revolution to the children killed or traumatized in Holocaust novels The author examines a wide spectrum of works including Jack London s dog tales the contemporary realistic novels of S E Hinton and Newbery Medal winners like Johnny Tremain and Bridge to Terabithia Tribunella raises fundamental questions about the value of children s literature as a whole and provides context for understanding why certain books become required reading for youth Eric L Tribunella is assistant professor of English at the University of Southern Mississippi His articles have been published in Children s Literature Association Quarterly Children s Literature in Education The Lion and the Unicorn A Critical Journal of Children s Literature and Children s Literature El-Hi Textbooks & Serials in Print, 2000 ,2000 El-Hi Textbooks & Serials in Print, 2005 ,2005 An Education in 'Evil' Cathryn van Kessel,2019-04-15 This book asserts that engaging with divergent understandings about the nature of evil and how it functions can help those interested in education think through issues in curriculum pedagogy and beyond The author provokes thinking about and through the concept of evil in the spirit of thoughtful education as opposed to thoughtless schooling toward how we might live together in less harmful ways Although thinking about evil can be uncomfortable and troubling such inquiries help us explore what sort of relations we want to have with others Analyzing our role in evil as humans as well as our responsibilities to counter the processes of evil present in our everyday lives opens up a potential to foster radical thought in and out of the classroom Classroom Notes Plus ,2002

Canadian Periodical Index ,2000 Childhood beyond Pathology Lisa Farley,2018-08-23 Winner of the 2020 Outstanding Book Award presented by Division B Curriculum Studies of the American Educational Research Association

Winner of the 2019 Critics Choice Book Award presented by the American Educational Studies Association Childhood beyond Pathology offers an account of the ways that psychoanalytic concepts can inform ongoing challenges of representing development belonging and relationality with a focus on debates over how children should be treated what they might know and who they should become Drawing from fiction clinical studies and courtroom and classroom contexts Lisa Farley explores a series of five conceptual figures the replacement child the neurodiverse child the counterfeit child the child heir of historical trauma and the gender divergent child with a keen eye to discussions of social justice and human dignity The book reveals the emotional situations social tensions and political issues that shape the meaning of childhood and focuses on what happens when a child departs from normative scripts of development Through thought provoking analysis Farley develops themes that include childhood loss the myth of innocence the problem of diagnosis the subject of racial hatred the meaning of a good fight and gender embodiment She draws extensively on psychoanalytic concepts to show how the fantasy of the child advancing through lockstep stages fails to account for the child as symbolic of the conflicts of entering into the social world Childhood beyond Pathology suggests we reconsider developmental understandings of childhood by honoring the elusive qualities of inner life
