Educational Scholarship across the Mediterranean, 2021-10-25 The Mediterranean has once again come into its own in global geopolitics attracting international interest that goes well beyond the typical stereotypes propagated by the tourist industry Popular movements clamouring for democracy conflict zones that have a spill over effect well beyond the region efforts to engage with globalisation on its own terms one and all play out in various sectors of society education included

Educational Scholarship across the Mediterranean A Celebratory Retrospective brings together in one volume a selection of the best articles that have appeared in the Mediterranean Journal of Educational Studies whose first issue was published in 1996 Each chapter highlights challenges faced by education systems across the region seen from the perspective of leading scholars who draw on original empirical data a broad spectrum of theoretical frameworks and personal experience to reflect on education related topics Among these we find critical considerations of the role of the economy demography gender social stratification religion politics culture and language in shaping educational systems and practices Much has been achieved in the countries bordering on the Mediterranean over the past 25 years and yet a consideration of the continuities as much as of the ruptures is instructive showing how education remains both a transformative and reproductive force in communities

Creativity in Primary Education Anthony Wilson, 2014-12-04 An alien spaceship crash landed in my playground today For one primary school in England this was not an ordinary day It was a fabulous day of inspiration writing drawing discovering and learning for the pupils the staff and the parents But the best thing of all The only truly out of the ordinary thing was the alien spaceship So how do you make creativity a more everyday part of primary teaching Teachers and trainees agree that creativity is a fabulous thing But to get creative approaches into everyday teaching you need to tackle the question what is creativity This book explores this question in an accessible and practical way It helps trainees to do more than know it when they see it by helping them to understand the separate and very diverse elements of creativity The third edition of this popular text retains key material but it has been updated and revised to include two new chapters on the creative curriculum along with links throughout to the Standards and the new National Curriculum This book will help you enhance your teaching so you and the children in your class can be fellow explorers adventurous discoverers and spontaneous investigators The School Textbook William E. Marsden, 2013-01-11 A study of the school textbook grounded in historical and comparative perspectives The approach is broadly chronological revealing changes in the theory and practice of textbook production and use The book focuses largely on three associated subjects geography history and social studies
