Teaching Is Tough A Spectrum:

Teaching Tough Topics Larry Swartz, 2020-01-15 Teaching Tough Topics shows teachers how to lead students to become caring citizens as they read and respond to quality children's literature. It focuses on topics that can be challenging or sensitive yet are significant in order to build understanding of social justice, diversity and equity. Racism, Homophobia, Bullying, Religious Intolerance, Poverty and Physical and Mental Challenges are just some of the themes explored. The book is rooted in the belief that by using picture books, novels, poetry and nonfiction, teachers can enrich learning with compassion and empathy as students make connections to texts, to others and to the world.

Teaching a Child with Special Needs at Home and at School Judith B. Munday M.A. M.Ed., 2016-04-28 Have you been searching for help as you try to teach a struggling learner? This is the book you have been looking for. Judi Munday draws from what she has learned in 30 years of teaching exceptional students and shares that practical knowledge with you in Teaching a Child with Special Needs at Home and at School. Strategies and Tools that Really Work. This is a highly readable and helpful guide for anyone who teaches a child with learning disabilities or high functioning autism or Asperger's. Judi has packed it full of easy to use instructional strategies and advice about what works for both parents who homeschool and for teachers who work with students with special needs. Since it is always difficult to find enough time to individualize, Judi makes sure that her teaching recommendations require little extra work or advance planning. She shows you how easy it is to modify or adapt textbooks and instructional materials. You will also learn about evidence based instructional tools such as graphic organizers and rubrics. Chapter topics include high functioning autism, Asperger's and specific learning disabilities along with a generous supply of specific teaching strategies that apply to them. You can also learn more about effective instruction, assistive technology and student education plans. Judi has the heart to share her wisdom to educate, encourage and equip you to be a more effective teacher of your special learner.
