The School World ,1906 Can You See Us? Dr. Wick, Dr. Johnson, 2011-03-08 Identical twins Drs Phyllis and Philetha Tucker have seen it all during their careers murder rape bomb threats and assaults with deadly weapons Surprisingly the sisters are not police officers FBI agents or private detectives They are school teachers who together have spent over 60 years educating and at times saving the youth of America Written in one voice of two women who share the same educational views and in some instances the same or similar experiences Can You See Us provides a compelling glimpse into an educational system that unfortunately no longer sees children as its first priority but seems to focus on politics and money The sisters share heart wrenching stories that detail the bullying abandonment and personal tragedies children endure on a daily basis in the midst of a school system short on resources funds and time They offer a moving perspective that only a teacher can provide while joyfully watching some children succeed and helplessly witnessing others fail The stories in Can You See Us will hopefully encourage parents educators and administrators to begin taking the crucial steps to transform an educational system in desperate need of reform Absolutely enlightening Professor Bonnie Ronson Report of the Minister of Education for the Year ... Victoria. Education Dept, 1925 Teaching Creative Writing in Canada Darryl Whetter, 2024-12-04 Teaching Creative Writing in Canada maps the landscape of Creative Writing programmes across Canada Canada's position both culturally and physically as a midpoint between the two major Anglophone influences on Creative Writing pedagogy the UK and the USA makes it a unique and relevant vantage for the study of contemporary Creative Writing pedagogy Showcasing writer professors from Canada's major Creative Writing programmes the collection considers the climate crisis contemporary workshop scepticism curriculum design programme management prize culture grants and interdisciplinarity Each chapter concludes with field tested writing advice from many of Canada's most influential professors of fiction poetry creative nonfiction and drama This authoritative volume offers an important national perspective on contemporary and timeless issues in Creative Writing pedagogy and their varied treatment in Canada It will be of valuable to other creative teachers and practitioners those with an interest in teaching and learning a creative art and anyone working on cultural and educational landscapes Laoshi: Tai Chi, Teachers, and Pursuit of Principle Jan Kauskas, 2014-05-01 The book is a kind of semifictional memoir Chapters reflect the author s own experiences gained in the pursuit of tai chi and other martial arts The text flows as a novel but with substance based solidly in reality applicable to anyone tai chi practitioner or not since the main theme is the pursuit of principle in everyday life Book Description A tai chi student explores the Dao of Zheng Manqing with the aid of his teacher Laoshi Through personal accounts reflection and dialogue with Laoshi we witness the novice s evolution in his search for the spirit of the art and the resulting bond forged with his instructor Together student and teacher examine the philosophical and martial aspects of tai chi They demonstrate what it means to pursue principle and they see the ease with which it can be lost to that trickster and provocateur the ego Engaging sincere and at times lighthearted this fictional memoir narrated from the student s perspective addresses themes familiar to all who study tai chi and the martial arts Laoshi is a journey into tai chi and a meditation on life and living without fear

Between the 'Real' and the 'Imagined' Leslie James Pereira,2008-01-01 How can the idea of leadership be understood in the context of modern day schools What can contemporary perspectives on knowledge and the nature of its acquisition offer the practicing educator Between the Real and the Imagined examines the essence of what it means to be a leader Drawing on a lived experience of the complexities that face those in leadership positions it explores espoused aims and accepted practices and challenges conventional ideas of traditional and transformative approaches Within a framework of narrative inquiry the author describes analyses and reconceptualises issues and understandings that are central to the human experience and which impact heavily on the interactions between the leader and the led He gains perspective by drawing on a variety of seemingly disparate lenses while drawing on insights from across cultures and epistemological frames As a postmodern example of both the process and the product of coming to know Between the Real and the Imagined offers graduate students academic faculty and researchers in education leadership and the social sciences a theoretically stimulating text while maintaining a grounding in real life sensibility that will appeal to
