Teaching Of Poetry European Perspectives:

The Teaching of Poetry Linda Thompson, 1996 This collection of papers arises from a poetry symposium held in 1992 at the University of Durham Chapters reflect the thinking of researchers on the teaching of poetry in schools and teacher education courses

International Handbook of Research in Arts Education Liora Bresler, 2007-09-04 Providing a distillation of knowledge in the various disciplines of arts education dance drama music literature and poetry and visual arts the Handbook synthesizes existing research literature helps define the past and contributes to shaping the substantive and methodological future of the respective and integrated disciplines of arts education While research can at times seem distant from practice the Handbook aims to maintain connection with the lived practice of art and of education capturing the vibrancy and best thinking in the field of theory and practice The Handbook is organized into 13 sections each centering on a major area or issue in arts education research These areas include History of arts education curriculum evaluation cultural centers appreciation composition informal learning child culture creativity the body spirituality and technology The individual chapters address cross cultural research related to the central theme of the section from the perspectives of the particular arts discipline Interludes provide reflective thoughts on the theme

Thinking through Children's Literature in the Classroom Agustín Reyes-Torres, Luis S. Villacañas-de-Castro, Betlem Soler Pardo, 2014-06-30 This book is the result of understanding literature as a central part of children's education Fiction and nonfiction literary works constitute a source to open young minds and to help them understand how and why people themselves included live as they do or to question through critical lenses whether they could live otherwise By integrating philological cultural and pedagogical inquiries Thinking through Children's Literature in the Classroom approaches the use of literature as a crucial factor to motivate students not only to improve their literacy skills but also to develop their literary competence one that prepares them to produce independent and sensible interpretations of the world Of course the endeavor of forming young readers and fostering their ability to think begins primarily by having well read teachers who are enthusiastic about teaching and secondly by having students who are willing to learn To encourage and sustain them through the critical turns of their own thinking processes educators must surely display a sound pedagogic knowledge apart from deep literary expertise

Drafting and Assessing Poetry Sue Dymoke, 2003-04-14 Based on theory but with a practical dimension the book engages readers in current critical debates about poetry teaching and its place in an assessment driven curriculum

Making Poetry Matter Sue Dymoke, Andrew Lambirth, Anthony Wilson, 2013-08-08 Making Poetry Matter draws together contributions from leading scholars in the field to offer a variety of perspectives on poetry pedagogy A wide range of topics are covered including Teacher attitudes to teaching poetry in the urban primary classroom Digital poetry and multimodality Resistance to poetry in Post 16 English Throughout the internationally recognised contributors draw on case studies to ensure that the theory is clearly linked to classroom practice They consider the teaching and learning challenges that poetry presents for those working with learners aged between 5 and 19 and explore these challenges with reference to reading writing speaking and listening and the transformative nature of poetry in different contexts Teaching

Literature in the A Level Modern Languages Classroom Katherine Raithby, Alison Taylor, 2019-07-02 This book provides essential support and advice on using literature in the A level modern languages classroom addressing key concerns such as ways to approach this task and how to maximise the benefit to students There are strategies for understanding works of different genres as well as ways to analyse plot characterisation themes and style all presented in a logical way that allows existing teaching methods to be built upon Including a step by step approach to all aspects of planning resourcing and teaching literature in modern languages at advanced levels this book covers essential topics such as Why teaching and studying literature is important How to choose the text Preparing and introducing the literary text Understanding the characters themes style and structure Writing examination essays Ways to spark creative language use before and beyond the set text Based on the latest A level modern languages syllabus this practical book will help both new and experienced teachers approach teaching literature with more confidence which will enrich their students language learning and inspire their creativity beyond examination requirements Routledge Encyclopedia of Language Teaching and Learning

Michael Byram, 2004 This handbook deals with all aspects of contemporary language teaching and its history Produced for language teaching professionals it is also useful as a reference work for academic studies at postgraduate level Lit & Media Tests in Sec English Andrew Goodwyn, 1999-01-01 Examining how to make English teaching exciting and relevant in a modern technological and culturally diverse society this text explores poetry and classic texts and media and multicultural texts It gives approaches to unexpected texts and explores gender issues in adolescent fiction Developing Intercultural

Competence in Practice Michael Byram, Adam Nichols, David Stevens, 2001-01-01 It is now widely recognised that learning a language should not just involve linguistic competence but also intercultural competence It is also clear that intercultural competence can be developed through related subjects such as geography history mother tongue teaching This book takes this as a given and provides practical help for teachers who wish to help their learners acquire intercultural competence in the ordinary classroom It contains descriptions of lessons and materials from a wide range of classrooms in several countries and for beginners to advanced learners Language, Literature and Culture in a Multilingual Society Ozo-mekuri

Ndimele, Mustapha Ahmad, 2016-12-14 The papers here were selected from presentations made at the 24th Annual Conference of the Linguistic Association of Nigeria LAN which held at Bayero University Kano The book contains seventy seven 77 papers addressing various issues in linguistics literature and cultures in Nigeria The book is organized into four sections as follows Section One Language and Society Section Two Applied Linguistics Section Three Literature Culture Stylistics and Gender Studies and Section Four Formal Linguistics Teaching Modern Foreign Languages Carol

Morgan, Peter Neil, 2014-07-10 Designed for all trainee and newly qualified teachers teacher trainers and mentors this volume provides a contemporary handbook for the teaching of modern foreign languages covering Key Stages 2 3 and 4 in line with current DfEE and TTA guidelines The Elements of Foreign Language Teaching Walter Grauberg,1997 This text presents an integrated description of learning and teaching foreign languages in general and French and German in particular Vocabulary pronunciation listening reading speaking and writing are discussed with a threefold approach through a linguistic description an analysis of the learning process and many practical suggestions for teaching British Romanticism in European Perspective Steve Clark,Tristanne Connolly,2015-09-08 What and when is British Romanticism if seen not in island isolation but cosmopolitan integration with European Romantic literature history and culture The essays here range from poetry and the novel to science writing philosophy visual art opera and melodrama from France and Germany to Italy and Bosnia Education for Diversity Andrew Stables,2017-11-01 This book was published in 2003 Certain social and cultural changes have problematized many of the assumptions that underpinned educational thinking in the 20th century These can be grouped under three broad headings individualization globalization and the ecological challenge Each of these has potentially profound implications for education that have been little explored Rising to the challenge this volume examines individualization in relation to changing attitudes to childhood and the positioning and identity development of students within educational markets It discusses globalization from several crucial perspectives including the reduced sovereignty of the nation state and the problematizing of notions of distance and proximity The ever increasing environmental crisis is considered in terms of the possibilities for education for sustainable development

Young Bilingual Learners in Nursery School Linda Thompson,2000 This book presents the findings of an ethnolinguistic study of the language and social behaviour of a group of three year old British born children from families of settled migrants who speak languages other than English in their homes and communities The study draws from a number of research disciplines including linguistics anthropology and ethnography to provide an analytical description of the social and linguistic behaviour of the children during their first term in kindergarten Although the study was located in the UK the findings have implications for children in other societies where English is the formal language of education The book will be of interest to teachers parents and others interested in the lives of young children Latino/a Literature in the Classroom Frederick Luis Aldama,2015-06-19 In one of the most rapidly growing areas of literary study this volume provides the first comprehensive guide to teaching Latino a literature in all variety of learning environments Essays by internationally renowned scholars offer an array of approaches and methods to the teaching of the novel short story plays poetry autobiography testimonial comic book children and young adult literature film performance art and multi media digital texts among others The essays provide conceptual vocabularies and tools to help teachers design courses that pay attention to Issues of form across a range of storytelling media Issues of content such as theme and character Issues of historical periods linguistic communities and regions Issues of institutional classroom settings The volume innovatively adds to and complicates the broader humanities curriculum by offering new possibilities for pedagogical practice

Debates in Primary Education Virginia Bower, 2020-10-19 This powerful text encourages both pre service and established teachers as well as teacher educators to engage with contemporary debates in primary education Promoting a critical approach the chapters explore a wide range of key themes including the importance of values in primary education and the imperative for a curriculum which embraces the whole range of available subjects At the same time the chapters are underpinned by a belief that children should be at the heart of all the decisions we make and that primary education should inspire a love of learning for life The book aims to support practitioners to make informed judgements and feel confident to argue their point of view with deeper theoretical knowledge and understanding thus increasing teacher agency and confidence in responding to complex educational and social dilemmas such as literacy levels and rising mental health concerns Chapters encompass both the macro aspects of primary education and more specialised debates on key topics such as reading mathematics languages early years education and the use of technology With annotated further reading and reflective questions this key text is essential reading for all those wanting to develop a better understanding of the issues that shape their practice including student teachers at both undergraduate and postgraduate level practising teachers engaged in continuing professional development and teacher educators

Foreign Language and Culture Learning from a Dialogic Perspective Carol Morgan, Albane Cain, 2000 This book analyses an intercultural project undertaken by French and English 14 year olds based on an exchange of materials created by the pupils and focused on the topic of law and order The project was based on a view of learning as a dialogic process interacting with others A first language and home culture is acquired through such interaction This project sought to realise this dialogic process in a more meaningful way than is often the case in foreign language classrooms

ICT and Language Learning: a European Perspective Angela Chambers, Graham Davies, 2001-01-01 A discussion of Information and Communications Technologies ICT and language learning aimed at researchers and practitioners in the field It deals with developments in Europe with the majority of the chapters focusing on the results of collaborative international projects
