

Self-Management Strategies: Three Categories

The earlier a student acts on one of these strategies, the more likely he or she is to succeed, but students need strategies at multiple levels.

I. Situation-Oriented Strategies – typically require lead time to put in place

- Choose the situation: Choose to be in places or with people that help you manage yourself.
 - E.g., hang out with students who are working diligently; take a route home that avoids the mall; etc.
- Modify the situation: Modify a situation you can't avoid.
 - E.g., sit at the front of the class instead of in the back with distracting friends.
