Teaching Writing As A Second Language:

Teaching Writing as a Second Language Alice Horning, 1986-09-26 Classrooms filled with glassy eyed students provide an experiential base for Alice S Horning's new comprehensive theory about basic writers Horning explores the theory of writing acquisition in detail Her examination of spoken and written language and redundancy give a theoretical base to her argument that academic discourse is a separate linguistic system characterized by particular psycholinguistic features She proposes that basic writers learn to write as other learners master a second language because for them academic written English is a whole new language She explores the many connections to be found in second language acquisition research to the teaching and learning of writing and gives special attention to the interlanguage hypothesis pidginization theory and the Monitor theory She also addresses the role of affective factors feelings attitudes emotions and motivation in the success or failure of writing students

L2 Writing in Secondary Classrooms Luciana C. de Oliveira, Tony Silva, 2013-03-20 Second language writers and the teaching of writing at the secondary level have received little attention compared with other skills such as reading Addressing this gap this volume uniquely looks at both adolescent L2 writing and the preparation of secondary teachers to work with this population of students Part I on adolescent L2 writers includes case studies looking at their literacy identities their trajectories in mainstream content area classes and their transition from high school to college Part II looks at academic issues The focus in Part III is L2 writing teacher education Taking a theoretically eclectic approach that can support a variety of pedagogies this book contributes significantly to understanding adolescent second language writers and to educating teachers to address these students specific needs

Writing Myths Joy M. Reid, Keith S. Folse, 2008 This volume was conceived as a best practices resource for writing teachers in the way that Vocabulary Myths by Keith S Folse is one for reading and vocabulary teachers It was written to help ensure that writing teachers are not perpetuating the myths of teaching writing Each author is a practicing teacher who selected his or her myth based on classroom experience and expertise Both the research and pedagogy in this book are based on the newest research in for example teacher preparation EAP and ESP and corpus linguistics The myths discussed in this book are Teaching vocabulary is not the writing teacher's job Keith S Folse Teaching citation is someone else's job Cynthia M Schuemann Where grammar is concerned one size fits all Pat Byrd and John Bunting Academic writing should be assertive and certain Ken Hyland Students must learn to correct all their writing errors Dana Ferris Corpus based research is too complicated to be useful for writing teachers Susan Conrad Academic writing courses should focus on paragraph and essay development Sharon Cavausgil International and U S resident ESL writers cannot be taught in the same class Paul Kei Matsuda The book concludes with a discussion of students myths about academic writing and teaching written by Joy Reid

Controversies in Second Language Writing Christine Pearson Casanave, 2007 Controversies in Second Language Writing is not a how to book but one that focuses on how teachers in L2 writing can be helped to make reasoned decisions by understanding some of the key issues and conflicting opinions about L2 writing research and pedagogy This book will assist teachers in making informed decisions about teaching writing in the ESL classroom To counteract some of the debates Casanave explores the different sides of the arguments and provides examples of how other teachers have dealt with these issues The book presents novice and seasoned teachers with thought provoking issues and questions to consider when determining and reflecting on their own teaching strategies and criteria Topics discussed include contrastive rhetoric product vs process fluency and accuracy assessment of student work audience plagiarism politics and ideology TEACHING WRITING IN SECOND AND FOREIGN LANGUAGE CLASSROOMS Jessica Williams,2005 Provides research based information and practical advice to instructors who teach writing to second and foreign language learners This book is suitable for a basic methods course or a course on second or foreign language writing It is also useful as a preparation course for ESL or foreign language teaching assistants Second Language Writing Ken Hyland,2003-10-27 Table of contents Teaching Writing to Second Language Learners Riaz Hassan,Professor of Sociology Riaz Hassan, Dr,2009-06 A treatise on factors that need to be identified and addressed in helping adult South Asian students to enhance their confidence and improve their performance in writing This is an area of increasing importance as higher education in these countries becomes more and more research oriented Weaknesses in language exist and persist the unhappy legacy of poor educational policies miniscule budgets and half hearted implementation over the years Remediation is said to be the most difficult and least successful undertaking in language teaching but it might be possible to improve approaches and results by looking at some of the facts and factors of the situation Expertise in Second Language Writing Instruction Alan Hirvela,Diane D. Belcher,2024-11-25 Despite growing interest in L2 writing teachers there is a dearth of published works that specifically delve into the nuances of the development of L2 writing teacher expertise Informed by relevant foundational theory and empirical research this book addresses this crucial gap in the understanding of expertise in L2 writing instruction This book offers a holistic analysis of L2 writing instruction serving as a valuable resource for those involved in the development of L2 writing teacher educators as well as novice teachers striving to hone their skills in teaching L2 writing It draws from a wide array of international perspectives on the conceptualization of L2 writing teacher expertise and research in this domain Significantly it is the first comprehensive work that places expertise in L2 writing instruction at the forefront It will interest scholars in the disciplines of foreign and second language education as well as postgraduate students and aspiring teachers Teaching Writing in English as a Foreign Language Huan Zhao,Lawrence Jun Zhang,2022-05-30 This book explores teachers cognitions about the teaching of writing in English as a foreign language EFL and their teaching practice as well as factors influencing the formation and reformation process of their cognition Taking stock of Bakhtin s dialogism as the theoretical framework the authors argue that the formation and reformation of teacher cognition is a dialogic process A systematic analysis of participating teachers cognition formation and reformation process suggests the highly individual nature of teachers cognitions EFL researchers and teachers teacher educators teacher education policymakers university administrators and EFL textbook writers could draw on the findings of the study to provide better resources to implement the teaching of EFL writing more effectively The study has adopted a mixed methods approach whose quantitative results show the patterns and differences of teacher cognition among teachers of different backgrounds and with different schooling education and working experiences The qualitative findings show in detail teachers cognition formation and reformation processes and the factors contributing to such processes revealing convergence and divergence of teachers stated cognitions with a focus on the discrepancy between teacher cognition and teaching practice These are useful lenses through which researchers and teachers will find significant implications for offering EFL writing instruction more effectively

Tutoring Second Language Writers Shanti Bruce, Ben Rafoth, 2015-12-12 Tutoring Second Language Writers a complete update of Bruce and Rafoth s 2009 ESL Writers is a guide for writing center tutors that addresses the growing need for tutors who are better prepared to work with the increasingly international population of students seeking guidance at the writing center Drawing upon philosopher John Dewey s belief in reflective thinking as a way to help build new knowledge the book is divided into four parts Part 1 Actions and Identities is about creating a proactive stance toward language difference thinking critically about labels and the mixed feelings students may have about learning English Part 2 Research Opportunities demonstrates writing center research projects and illustrates methods tutors can use to investigate their questions about writing center work Part 3 Words and Passages offers four personal stories of inquiry and discovery and Part 4 Academic Expectations describes some of the challenges tutors face when they try to help writers meet readers specific expectations Advancing the conversations tutors have with one another and their directors about tutoring second language writers and writing Tutoring Second Language Writers engages readers with current ideas and issues that highlight the excitement and challenge of working with those who speak English as a second or additional language

Second Language Writing in Elementary Classrooms Luciana de Oliveira, Tony Silva, 2016-04-29 Second Language Writing in Elementary Classrooms focuses on L2 writing in elementary classrooms It features chapters that highlight research in elementary classrooms focused on the writing development of multilingual children and research in teacher education to prepare elementary teachers to teach L2 writing and address L2 writers needs

Connecting Reading & Writing in Second Language Writing Instruction Alan Hirvela, 2004-08-20 Academic writing often requires students to incorporate material from outside sources like statistics ideas quotations paraphrases into their own written texts a particular obstacle for students who lack strong reading skills In Connecting Reading and Writing in Second Language Instruction Alan Hirvela contends that second language writing students should be considered as readers first and advocates the integration of reading and writing instruction with a survey of theory research and pedagogy in the subject area Although the integrated reading writing model has gained popularity in recent years many teachers have little more than an intuitive sense of the connections between these skills As part of the popular Michigan Series on Teaching Multilingual Writers

Connecting Reading and Writing in Second Language Instruction will provide invaluable background knowledge on this issue to ESL teachers in training as well as teachers who are already practicing
