Teaching about the Holocaust Samuel Totten, Paul Robert Bartrop, Steven L. Jacobs, 2004 Holocaust and Human Rights Education Michael Polgar, 2018-11-30 Educators and students face many questions when exploring the history of the Holocaust This book addresses the ways in which we teach and learn about the Holocaust applying sociological concepts and discussing the wider implications of the Holocaust on human rights and international law As the Witnesses Fall Silent: 21st Century Holocaust Education in Curriculum, Policy and Practice Zehavit Gross, E. Doyle Stevick, 2015-03-16 This volume represents the most comprehensive collection ever produced of empirical research on Holocaust education around the world It comes at a critical time as the world observes the 70th anniversary of the liberation of Auschwitz We are now at a turning point as the generations that witnessed and survived the Shoah are slowly passing on Governments are charged with ensuring that this defining event of the 20th century takes its rightful place in the schooling and the historical consciousness of their peoples The policies and practices of Holocaust education around the world are as diverse as the countries that grapple with its history and its meaning Educators around the globe struggle to reconcile national histories and memories with the international realities of the Holocaust and its implications for the present These efforts take place at a time when scholarship about the Holocaust itself has made great strides In this book these issues are framed by some of the leading voices in the field including Elie Wiesel and Yehuda Bauer and then explored by many distinguished scholars who represent a wide range of expertise Holocaust education is of such significance so rich in meaning so powerful in content and so diverse in practice that the need for extensive high quality empirical research is critical Th is book provides exactly that The International status of education about the Holocaust Carrier, Peter, Fuchs, Eckhardt, Messinger, Torben, Georg Eckert Institute for International Textbook Research (Germany), 2015-01-14 How do schools worldwide treat the Holocaust as a subject In which countries does the Holocaust form part of classroom teaching Are representations of the Holocaust always accurate balanced and unprejudiced in curricula and textbooks This study carried out by UNESCO and the Georg Eckert Institute for International Textbook Research compares for the first time representations of the Holocaust in school textbooks and national curricula Drawing on data which includes countries in which there exists no or little information about representations of the Holocaust the study shows where the Holocaust is established in official guidelines and contains a close textbook study focusing on the comprehensiveness and accuracy of representations and historical narratives The book highlights evolving practices worldwide and thus provides education stakeholders with comprehensive documentation about current trends in curricula directives and textbook representations of the Holocaust It further formulates recommendations that will help policy makers provide the educational means by which pupils may develop Holocaust literacy Holocaust vs. Popular Culture Mahitosh Mandal, Priyanka Das, 2023-08-10 Holocaust vs Popular Culture debates and deconstructs the binary responses to the representation of the Holocaust in European and non European forms of Popular Culture The binary is defined in terms of incompatibility between the Holocaust and Popular Culture on the one hand and the universalization of the Holocaust memory through Popular Culture on the other. The book does emphasize the anti representation argument. Nevertheless the authors make a case for a productive understanding of Holocaust Popular Culture as contributing to the expansion of Holocaust studies as well as cultural studies in the transnational context. The book theorizes Popular Culture in broad terms and highlights the diversity of Holocaust Popular Culture mainly but not exclusively produced in the twenty first century. This interdisciplinary collection covers a wide variety of Popular Culture genres including language literature films television shows soap operas music dance social media advertisements comics graphic novels videogames and museums. It studies the mis representation of the Holocaust trauma not only across genres but also across nations Western and Asian and generations from testimonial remembrance to post memory. This book will be of interest to students and scholars from a wide range of disciplines and subjects including Popular Culture Holocaust studies cultural studies genocide studies postcolonial and transnational studies media and film studies visual culture games studies race and ethnicity studies memory studies and Jewish studies.

Approaching an Auschwitz Survivor Jürgen Matthäus, 2009-08-18. Among sources on the Holocaust survivor testimonies are the least replaceable and most complex reflecting both the personality of the narrator and the conditions and perceptions prevailing at the time of narration. Scholars despite their aim to challenge memory and fill its gaps often use testimonies uncritically or selectively mining them to support generalizations. This book represents a departure bringing Holocaust experts Atina Grossmann Konrad Kwiet Wendy Lower Jürgen Matthäus and Nechama Tec together to analyze the testimony of one Holocaust survivor. Born in Bratislava at the end of World War I Helen Zippi Spitzer Tichauer was sent to Auschwitz in 1942. One of the few early arrivals to survive the camp and the death marches she met her future husband in a DP camp and they moved to New York in the 1960s. Beginning in 1946 Zippi devoted many hours to talking with a small group of scholars about her life. Her wide ranging interviews are uniquely suited to raise questions on the meaning and use of survivor testimony. What do we know today about the workings of a death camp? How willing are we to learn from the experiences of a survivor and how much is our perception preconditioned by standardized images? What are the mechanisms aims and pitfalls of storytelling? Can survivor testimonies be understood properly without guidance from those who experienced the events? This book's new multifaceted approach toward Zippi's unique story combined with the authors analysis of key aspects of Holocaust memory its forms and its functions makes it a rewarding and fascinating read.

Holocaust Consciousness in Contemporary Britain Andy Pearce, 2014-06-05. The Holocaust is a pervasive presence in British culture and society. Schools have been legally required to deliver Holocaust education the government helps to fund student visits to Auschwitz the Imperial War Museum's permanent Holocaust Exhibition has attracted millions of visitors and Britain has an annually commemorated Holocaust Memorial Day. What has prompted this development how has it unfolded and why has it happened now? How does it relate to Britain's post war history its contemporary concerns and the wider globalisation of Holocaust memory What are the multiple shapes that British Holocaust consciousness assumes and the consequences of their rapid emergence Why have the so called lessons of the Holocaust enjoyed such popularity in Britain Through analysis of changing engagements with the Holocaust in political cultural and memorial landscapes over the past generation this book addresses these questions demonstrating the complexities of Holocaust consciousness and reflecting on the contrasting ways that history is used in Britain today Holocaust Film Terri Ginsberg, 2009-03-26 This timely new monograph takes as its starting point the provocative contention that Holocaust film scholarship has been marginalized academically despite the crucial role Holocaust film has played in fostering international awareness of the Nazi genocide and scholarly understandings of cinematic power The book suggests political and economic motivations for this seeming paradox the ideological parameters of which are evident in debates and controversies over Holocaust films themselves and around Holocaust culture in general Lending particular attention to four exemplary Holocaust art films Korczak Poland 1990 The Quarrel Canada 1990 Entre Nous France 1983 and Balagan Germany 1994 this book breaks disciplinary ground by drawing critical connections between public and scholarly debates over Holocaust representation and the often sophisticated cinematic structures lending aesthetic shape to them in today's global arena Maven in Blue Jeans Steven L.
