Teaching Against Global Capitalism And The New Imperialism:

Teaching against Global Capitalism and the New Imperialism Peter McLaren, Ramin Farahmandpur, 2004-11-23

This book will address a number of urgent themes in education today that include multiculturalism the politics of whiteness the globalization of capital neoliberalism postmodernism imperialism and current debates in Marxist social theory The above themes will be linked to critical educational praxis particularly to teaching activities within urban schools Finally the book will develop the basis for a wider political project directed at resisting and transforming economic exploitation cultural homogenization political repression and gender inequality Recent and widespread scholarly attention has been given to the unabated mercilessness of global capitalism Little opposition exists as capital runs amok unhampered and undisturbed by the tectonic upheaval that is occurring in the geopolitical landscape that has recently witnessed the collapse of the Soviet Union and the regimes of the Eastern Bloc As we examine education policies within the context of economic globalization we attempt to address the extent to which the pedagogy and politics of everyday life has fallen under the sway of what we identify as cultural and economic imperialism Finally the book raises a number of urgent questions What are the current limitations to educational reform efforts among the educational left What are some of the problems associated with certain developments within postmodern education How can a return to Marxist theory and revolutionary politics revitalize the educational left at a time when capitalism appears to be unstoppable What actions need to be taken in both local and global arenas to overcome the exploitation that the globalization of capital has wreaked upon the world

concerning globalisation ideologies and the state as well as approaches to values education in schools The book explores the ambivalent and problematic connections between the state globalisation and values education It also explores conceptual frameworks and methodological approaches applicable to research on values education multiculturalism and identity politics Drawing on diverse paradigms ranging from critical theory to globalisation the book focuses on globalisation ideology and values education and critically examines recent research dealing with cultural diversity and its impact of identity politics Given the need for a multiple perspective approach authors from diverse backgrounds offer a wealth of insights contributing to a more holistic understanding of the nexus between values education multiculturalism and national identity With contributions from key scholars worldwide the book should be required reading for a broad spectrum of users including policy makers academics graduate students education policy researchers administrators and practitioners

Contesting Neoliberal Education Dave Hill, 2011-02-09 Neoliberal education policies have privatised marketised decentralized controlled and surveilled managed according to the business and control principles of new public managerialism attacked the rights and conditions of education workers and resulted in a loss of democracy critique and equality of access and outcome This book written by an impressive international array of scholars and activists explores the mechanisms and ideologies behind neoliberal education while evaluating and promoting resistance on a local national and global level Chapters examine the activities and impacts of the arguably socialist revolution in Venezuela the Porto Alegre democratic community experimental model in Brazil the activities of the Rouge Forum of democratic socialist teachers and educators in the USA Public Service International resistance movements against the GATS General Agreement on Trade in Services and trade union and social movement and community parental opposition to neoliberal education policies in Britain and in Latin America

The Rich World and the Impoverishment of Education Dave Hill, 2010-07-15 This book advances a powerful critique of neoliberalised education privatization marketisation new public managerialism increasing control and surveillance of schools and colleges in eight of the rich countries of the world USA Canada England and Wales Finland Greece Taiwan Israel and Japan

Critical Pedagogy and Cognition Curry Stephenson Malott, 2011-02-10 This book simultaneously contributes to the fields of critical pedagogy and educational psychology in new and innovative ways by demonstrating how critical pedagogy postformal psychology and Enlightenment science seemingly separate and distinct disciplines are actually part of the same larger contextualized complex whole from the inner most developmentally fixed biological context of human faculties to the perpetually shifting socially and politically constructed context of individual schema and human civilization The text s uniqueness stems from its bold attempt to connect the postformal critical constructivist pedagogy work of Joe Kincheloe and others to Western science through a shared although previously misunderstood critique and rejection of crude forms of social control which the psychologists call behaviorism and Western scientists identify as mechanical philosophy This book therefore argues that critical pedagogy which includes among others anarchist Marxist feminist Indigenous globally conceived Afro Caribbean American and postmodern traditions and critical constructivist educational psychology have much to gain by engaging previously rejected work in critical solidarity that is without compromising one's values or democratic commitments. The goal of this book is therefore to contribute to this vision of developing a more transgressive and transformational educational psychology.

Self-Study and Diversity, 2006-01-01

Self study and Diversity is a book about self study of teaching and teacher education with equity and access as focal issues of practice. Chapters in this book have a shared orientation to diversity grounded in the acknowledgement that educators have a responsibility to address equity and access issues inherent in teaching. To that end individual chapters address such areas of diversity as race ethnicity gender disability and power as well as broader areas of social justice multiculturalism and ways of knowing. Even though the focus in a chapter may be on one particular dimension of diversity the dilemmas and responses of a teacher educator elicited through self study can apply well beyond that immediate context. This broadens the appeal of the book beyond the self study community and beyond specific issues of diversity to people interested in teaching in general and in the process of improving practice. An additional strength of this book is the inclusion in each chapter of information regarding the use of particular strategies both for self study and for teaching for diversity. A separate index of these suggested research and teaching practices will direct the reader to specific chapters.

Decolonizing Foreign Language Education Donaldo Macedo, 2019-01-10

Decolonizing Foreign Language Education interrogates current foreign language and second language education approaches that prioritize white western thought. Edited by acclaimed critical theorist and linguist Donaldo Macedo this volume includes cutting edge work by a select group of critical language scholars working to rigorously challenge the marginalization of foreign language education and the displacement of indigenous and non standard language varieties through the reification of colonial languages. Each chapter confronts the hold of colonialism and imperialism that inform and shape the relationship between foreign language education and literary studies by asserting that a critical approach to applied linguistics is just as important a tool for FL/ESL/EFL educators as literature or linguistic theory.
